جوردان تايمز يومية سيامية تصر جانزية عن المؤسسة الصحفية الاردنية "الراي".

Today's Weather

It will be partly cold and cloudy with scattered rains. The winds will be easterly moderate. In Agaha the weather will be partly cloudy and

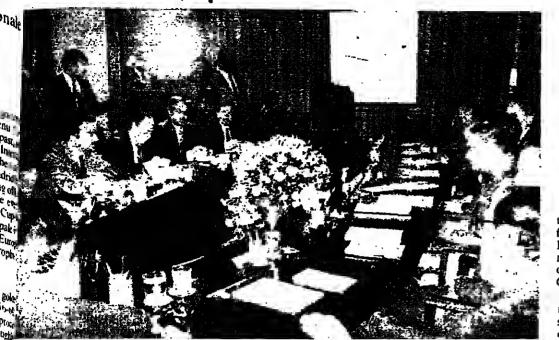

Overnight 23

Yesterday's high temperatures: Amman 16, Aqaba 23, Sunset tonight: 6:02 p.m. Sunrise tomorrow: 5:13 a.m.

ne 6, Number 1627

AMMAN, WEDNESDAY APRIL 8, 1981 — JUMADA AL THANI 4, 1401

Price: Jordan 100 fils; Syria 1 pound; Lebanon 1 pound; Saudi Arabia 1.50 riyals; UAE 1.50 dirhams; Great Britain 25 pence 1965 Rnyal Highness Crown Prince Hassan briefs heir Rnyal Highness Crown France Hassen II.

ditions in the occupied territories at talks Tuesday in Amman. (Staff photo by Yousef Al 'Allan)

Haig to see Saudi king today fter 'fruitful' talks in Amman

STICADH, April 7 (JT/Agencies) 'Mu wet J.S. Secretary of State Alexer Haig arrived today for talks and a med to rebuild Saudi conto tall time in the United States' his segrmination to secure the Gulf discount on against what it sees as a p Suifet threat.

n a mai e flew in from Jordan where Cur is said he had found a cons: whos ence of views on Middle East 75 [in: strategic matters.

Strange e was greeted by the Saudi of Bural, and was scheduled to have educeworking dinner tonight with wn Prince Fahd. Enter the Warning U.S. plans Enter imporving. Saudi security by Ruman imporving. Saudi security by Ruman imported Warning and Control Literature (AWACS) planes over the few years.

is plane landed within sight of 2. 1:0 e such aircraft which were sent in Asaudi Arabia as a precaution I a few r the outbreak of the war bet-nam ber. omorrow Mr. Haig plans to the on King Khaled to deliver a

A cup itional message from President hafe hald Reagan. is is baudi Arabia is the last stop on a

1 in an interpretation Middle East tour functione Mr. Haig moves on to The visitern Europe for visits to Free n.

pring wefore he left Jordan today Mr. g met with His Royal Highness wn Prince Hassan who lained the deteriorating situn of the Arab inhabitants er Israeli rule and Israel's setient policy in the occupied ter-

1r. Haig and his accompanying gation also saw a documenfilm on Israel's settlement gramme in the West Bank and a which clarified Israel's mpts to impose its domination Arab land under the pretext of erving Israel's security. rince Hassan also discussed el's repressive measures ntransigence in denying the stinians their rights in their

h≥ ieland. nless the Palestine problem is solved honourably, Prince Hassan said the Arabs confidence in the superpowers' ability to achieve peace in the region is bound to weaken. He added that Israel's continued occupation of Arab land and its pursuit of its settlement policy are bound to perpetuate instability and eventually expose the whole region to dan-

Mr. Haig today also met mem-bers of the U.S. community in Jordan and attended a briefing on the military situation at the Jordanian army headquarters.

Mr. Haig today described his talks with His Majesty King Hussein as very fruitful, com-prehensive and frank. Speaking to reporters before his departure for Saudi Arabia, Mr. Haig said that his talks with the King, Crown Prince Hassan and Foreign Minister Marwan Al Qasem dealt with international affairs and U.S.-Jordanian relations.

the American delegation has now acquired a strong impression that U.S. and Jordanian officials have congruent views concerning strategic and regional issues, Mr.

"I have felt that King Hussein

Mrs. Patricia Haig, wife of the U.S. secretary of state, admires a costume display in the Amman

Folklore Museum on Tuesday. With her is Mrs.

and the Jordanian government are working relentlessly towards achieving a just and comprehensive peace in the region. and this is also the aim of the American administration," Mr. Haig added. "I leave Jordan with a strong feeling of appreciation and admiration for His Majesty King Hussein and the Jordanian people with whom the American people maintain strong, friendly rela-tions," Mr. Haig said. He described King Hussein as a friend of the United States who enjoys deep respect and appreciation in Washington, adding that he looked forward to the streng-thening of friendship between the two countries.

Mr. Haig was seen off by Mr. Oasem, who told reporters at Amman airport that the Jordanian government has submitted to Mr. Haig its views on the Palestine problem and the principles for actieving a just and prehensive solution to the Middle East issue.

Also seeing off Mr. Halg at the airport were the court minister. Mr. Amer Khammash, and Jordan's ambassador in Washington.

Beirut hospital rocketed as Khaddam, Sarkis talk

BEIRUT, April 7 (Agencies) — Syrian troops and Lebanon's right-wing militias shook off mounting international pressure

Syria's peacekeeping forces traded rocket and beavy artillery fire with the militia of the rightist Falangist Party across Beirut's mid-city "Green Line" which divides the city's Muslim and Christian sectors. The state radio said Beirut's mid-eity military hospital received several direct rocket hits at sundown. The Falangist "Voice of Lehanon" radio statinn blamed the Syrians for the attack. The Falangist broadcast said the hospital was rendered useless as rockets tore into its main operating theatre, the hrain and cardiac wards and the intensive care section. The Syrians did not comment on the reports.

Day-long emergency talks bet-ween Syrian Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaddam and the Lehanese government of President Elias Sarkis and Prime Minister Shafiq Al Wazzan failed to produce a ceasefire agreement. Seventeen ceasefires have collapsed so far.

Syrian troops besieging Zahle, a market town in Lebanon's eastern Bekaa Valley, today engaged in sporadic artillery duels with Falangist militiamen in the surrounding hills.

Residents of Zable contacted by telephone said bombardment of the shell-ravaged town had ahated, but it was still dangerous to venture into the streets because of sniper fire.

Syrian artillery bombardment has destroyed most of the Lebanese Red Cross centre in Zahle, forcing evacuation of the staff and leaving 91 wounded without care, the Lebanese Red Cross said

In a telegram to the International Red Cross carried by the Beirut daily Al Nahar, the Lehanese Red Cross said all but one ward of the clinic was demolished vesterday. It sald the clinie was without medication, medical equipment, food or water.

The statement said 20 patients week of expanded fighting for control of key highways in east Lebanon. who had been given first aid and 30 others with more serious

today and plunged into a second that was not hit. The staff at the centre, "physically exhausted after working steadily for seven days and nights without proper sleep or nourishment," fled because they could no longer earry out their duties, it wounds, some of them needing amputation, were still in the ward

Mr. Khaddam blamed the current flare-up in Zahle, 48 kilometres east of Beirut, on the Falangists, saying they shot at the Syrians first.

"These gangs shot at the deterrent (Syrian) force. It had to resum fire and the responsibility for all the civilian losses in the city rests with the instigators," Mr. Khaddam said before returning to Damascus from the presidential

He said he agreed with President Sarkis and other Lebanese officials on immediate measures "that could help resolve all prohlems in the Lebanese arena if the others comply."

Mr. Khaddam did not spell out the measures and he refused to say whether they included a ceasefire in Beirut or Zahle.

Government sources here said Syria insists on Falangist evacuation of Zahle and on Syrian control of Zahle's highways to the Syrian border 32 kilometres away as preconditions for a ceasefire. The Falangists refused the Syrian demands, the sources added.

As Mr. Khaddam left, the Syrians said Chtaura, a town that houses the command headquarters of the Syrian peacekeepshelling from positions west of Chtaura.

Falangists maintain gun pos-nions west of Chtaura. This is the first time that Chtaura has been shelled since the outbreak of hostilities on Wednesday.

President Valery Giscard d'Estaing of France, a former colonial power in Lehanon and Syria. sent former ambassador to Lehanon Hubert Argod to Beirut for talks with Mr. Sarkis on "whatever aid we can offer." Mr. Argod told reporters at Beirut's airport.

As Mr. Argod went to the presidential palace, a French military hospital plane landed at the airport to take 50 wounded Lebanese for treatment to French hospitals. The plane had a team of 10 French doctors, the Lebanese state radio reported.

Israel today welcomed the United Nations' decision to send an emissary to the Middle East in an effort to stop the Lehanese

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman told reporters that top U.N. official Brian Urquhart will arrive in Israel next week as part of a visit to Beirut and Damascus to study the Lehanese situation. Asked why the U.N. included Israel in Mr. Urquhart's itinerary. the spokesman said.

"Our ties with the Lebanese Christians are no secret and we shall do everything possible to restore Lehanese sovereignty over the entire country, which means getting the Syrian forces and Palestinian terrorists out of the country.'

Some 500 villagers demonstrated today at the U.N. headquarters at Nagoura in South Lehanon demanding that U.N. ing force, was under intermittent 'troops help Christians heing attacked by Syrians in the north, eyewitnesses said.

His Majesty Ying Hussein, with His Royal Highness Crown Prince Hassan at his side, heads for his plane to England on Tuesday.

King off to U.K.

AMMAN, April 7 (Petra) — His Majesty King Hussein left for the United Kingdom today for a private visit during which he will attend the graduation of his son Prince Abdullah from Sandhutst military

During his stay in Britain, expected to last several days. King Hussein also will deliver a speech at the British army staff academy and will meet with several government officials. Before the King's departure His Royal Highness Ctown Prince Hassan was sworn in as Regent. King Hussein is accompanied by the commander in chief of the Jordanian armed forces, Lt. Gen.Sharif Zaid Ibn Shaker.

No breakthrough yet to end war, Iran says

NICOSIA, April 7 (AP) - Iran's president has denied published reports of a breakthrough in negotiations to end the Iraq-Iran war. but there were reports that a new peacemaking mission will travel to the two Gulf nations.

.Mr. Abol Hassan Bani-Sadr told Iran's official news agency Pars that peace proposals by a nine-member Islamic mediating team "were vague" and that a withdrawal of Iraqi troops from Iranian territory must be simultaneous with a ceasefire.

A separate peace mission by non-aligned nations is scheduled to .
Ily to Baghdad tomorrow, Mr. P.V.N. Rao, India's external affaits minister, said today in New Delhi.

Mr. Rao's announcement in parliament gave no details but it indicated approval had been received from the Iraqi government. Joining Mr. Rao will be representatives from Cuba. Zambia and the Palestine Liberation Organisation.

Iran sent word it will receive the mission in Tehran starting next paper, Al Waian, said there had been progress in efforts to end the war. Saturday, Yesterday, both Pars and an independent Kuwaiti news-

Haig, U.S. envoys

RIYADH, April 7 (Agencies) -U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig beld an urgeot meeting in Amman today with the U.S. ambassadors to Lebanon and Syria at which it was decided to make a strong new appeal for an end to the fighting in Lehanon, a senior U.S. official said.

"We are asking all concerned to be aware of the unpredictable consequences of escalation," said the official, who did not want to be identified.

He said the two ambassadors. Mr. John Gunther Dean in Beirut and Mr. Talcott Seelye in Damascus, returned to those capitals carrying messages from the United States urging peace.

U.S. officials warned yesterday that if the fighting doesn't end soon it could result in a major escalation of the conflict that might draw in the Israelis. They said the Israelis may already be under "irresistible pressure," to meet on Lebanon intervene.

The official said the message carried by the ambassadors underscores that the United States is committed to the territorial integrity of Lebanon. U.S. spokesman Dean Fisher said the breakfast meeting with the ambassadors was also partly in preparation for talks which Mr. Haig will hold in Saudi Arahia which will include the Lehanese

U.S. officials said a plan was being considered to despatch Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Morris Draper, who is in the Haig party, to Damaseus after the Saudi visit, but no final decision had been taken.

PLO plea for Abu 'Ein AMMAN, April 7 (JT) - An official of the Palestine Liberation

Organisation called today on Arab governments, particularly those visited by U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig, to intervene for the release of Mr. Ziyad Abu 'Ein, a young Palestinian being held in Chicago for extradition to Israel on a bombing Mr. Abdul Jawad Saleh, a member of the PLO Executive Committee and chairman of the Committee for the Defence of Palestinian rights, appealed to the Arah governments "to intervene immediately and directly to release the Palestinian citizen Ziyad Abu Ein, who is still detained by the American authorities unfairly, without a legal charge and in an illegitimate manner."

The PLO statement issued in Amman said that the U.S. authorities continue to overlook the rights of Mr. Ahu 'Ein hy detaining, insulting and humiliating him, preventing him from moving outside his room, imposing mandatory work on him, and not treating him as equal to other prisoners.

The prison authorities prevent him from making telephone calls in the morning although this is allowed to the rest of the prisoners, the statement charged. The authorities also have prevented 200 students and sympathisers from visiting Mr. Ahn 'Ein in his prison, the statement said.

Liberal Tehran daily closed TEHRAN, April 7 (R) — Iran's prosecutor-general ordered the liberal daily newspaper Mizan (Scales of Justice) to cease puhlication today, silencing one of the country's two major nongovernmental voices. The closure followed the arrest yesterday of the paper's managing editor, former commerce minister Reza Sadr, who is accused of slander, libel, disturbing national security and printing false reports through his editorials in Mizan. We have received an official order signed by National Guidance (Information) Minister Abhas Douzdouzani, and the newspaper will not appear from tomorrow," a Mizan spokesman told Reuters. The investigator in charge of oress affairs, named only as Abedi, later told another newspaper that Mizan had been closed for publishing libels and creating tensions in society."

He warned all mass media that from now on they must print their political orientation and the names of their licence holder and managing director on their mastheads.

President Abol Hassan Bani-Sadr. apparently commenting on the Mizan closure, spoke today of great and serious dangers threatening Iranian society. "We must defend freedom at any price. and especially freedom of the

"So if a newspaper insults me, I do not want it prosecuted, because I know, and past experience makes it clear, that tyranny over plete tyranny," he added.

Some 20 minor publications have been closed in recent months, but the ban on Mizan was the most telling blow against the Iranian press since another independent daily, Bamdad, disappeared last July after its pre-

the press is the beginning of commises were repeatedly occupied hy Islamic fundamentalists. If Mizan does not reappear, the afternoon daily Islamic Revolution, run by Mr. Bani-Sadr, will be the only major newspaper opposing the dontinant Islamic Republican Party (IRP).

Several lesser papers, among them the communist daily Mardom, also survive precariously. Mr. Reza Sadr, 54, a former prominent anti-Shah activist and once a theological student under Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini. was a member of the ruling revolutionary council after the fall of the Shah's regime and served as commerce minister in the interim government of Mr. Mehdi Bazargan in 1974. He has been Mizan's managing editor since the paper tirst appeared last September, Mizan disclaims party affiliations but is an avowed supporter of Mr. Bazargan, whose son Abdul Ali is its editor. Mr. Sadr, who was questioned for six hours vesterday, was still being held in Tehran's Quar Prison

Bani-Sadr, Raja'i, Nabavi sued ran's leaders face trial over violence at rally

EHRAN, April 7 (R) - Iran's chief govnment spokesman said today he expected be summoned for interrogation by a volutionary court in connection with last ness onth's violence at Tehran University.

Example of the transfer of the t influential figures in the gy-backed government of in the Minister Mohammad Ali have sment by the prosecutorral broadcast last night on radio. he prosecutor, Ayatollah ssavi Ardabilli, said that Prest Abol Hassan Bani-Sadr, the minister and Mr. Nabavi ld probably appear before a providing appear before a its against them following dis-ances at a university rally on

Ch 5. me 45 people were injured at rally which was addressed by president

At a press conference, Mr. Nahavi refused to elaborate on charges brought against him but said, "We will go there (to the court) and defend ourselves. It is possible that I might be summoned to the court in the next couple of days."

Mr. Nahavi played a major role in the negotiations which led to the release of the American hostages who spent 444 days in captivity after the former American embassy was stormed by young radicals on Nov. 4; 1979. The Tehran University violence, which provoked clashes between supporters of the president and Muslim fundamentalists, led to hitter exchanges among Iranian leaders over who was responsible for starting the fighting.

The prosecutor-general said in the broadcast a jury would be sworn in tomorrow to investigate the charges in what he described as "political trials,"

It is difficult for me to set an exact date for the trials, but the investigators told me they thought they would be ready in about two weeks' time," the prosecutor said on state radio.

"Suits have been filed against President Bani-Sadr, Mr. Nabavi and the prime minister and against some political groups like the (semi-legal, left-wing) Mujaheddin-e-Khalq," he said.

He said the proposed trials were proof of the recent words of revolutionary leader Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini that nobody was above the law.

Eyewitnesses of the March 5 events said Islamic extremists of the Hezbollah (Party of God)

heckled a speech on the Gulf war which the president was making to a crowd of about 100,000.

Jnyce Al Qasem, wife of Foreign Minister Marwan

Al Qasem. Mrs. Haig also toured Amman's Roman theatre. (Staff photo by Ynusef Al 'Allan)

After they shouted "Death to Bani-Sadr' and cut loudspeaker cables, Mr. Bani-Sadr ordered unarmed police to disperse them. The police failed to do so, so he which they did, leading to the injuries. The opposing version of the events in that the Mujaheddin, considered allies of the president. made unprovoked attacks on small groups of Hezhollahis, asked the crowd to help them, extremist backers of the IRP. Mr. Raja'i later accused Mr. Bani-Sadr of taking the law into his own hands, while the president produced identity cards taken from those arrested at the rally which he said proved they were special force." Mr. Nabavi, considered by many the most powerful force public exposure and trial if they in five days later saying the violence was "counter-revolution gaining victory over revolution." "The president's supporters beat and arrested those who had a trace of Islam in them," he said.

Speaking of moves to weaken and overthrow the government, he added: "The president himself has a share in these." Eleven days after the violence,

Ayatollah Khomeini intervened and harred Mr. Bani-Sadr and leaders of the dominant Islamic Republican Party (IRP) from making public speeches. Ayatollah Khomeini ended the wrangle without taking sides by saying all the figures involved in it were legally in office and it was forbidden to insult or weaken At the same time he reminded them that they were all subject to members of the prime minister's the constitution and could face behind the prime minister, joined did not obey it.

JD 3 million for municipalities

MAFRAQ, April 7 (Petra) — JD 3 million has been allocated by the Development Bank for Municipalities and Village Councils to finance municipalities, purchases of land for public projects, Minister of Municipal and Rural Affairs and the Environment Hassan Al Momani announced today.

The minister added, during a meeting with mayors and members of municipal councils in the northern desert region today, that the ministry has initiated the necessary procedures for drafting designs for several villages in the northem desert region, to be applied at the end of this year.

Twenty-four villages of the area will be linked with major and minor water mains, the minister will be finished at the end of this added. This JD 2 million project year.

CAEU-N. Yemen aid pact

AMMAN, April 7 (Petra) - The Council of Arab Economic Unity (CAEU) and North Yemen today signed an agreement for technical aid in statistics.

The council's secretary general, Dr. Fakhri Qaddouri, signed the agreement for the couocil, and the North Yemeni deputy permanent representative at the council, Mr. Saleb 'Angad, signed for North

Dr. Qaddouri made a speech lauding the achievements of the technical aid project instatistics. He said several statistical surveys have been made on the family budget, man power, industry and price indexing, as well as the training of staff doing statistical work by organising specialised training courses for this purpose. This is the fourth agreement of its kind since the CAEU approved a statistical aid programme for less-developed Arah states in 1977.

Hussein gets message from

AMMAN, April 7 (Petra) -Jordanian-North Yemeni rela-

The message was delivered to the Fing at the army head-

Archaeology Concept Group issues its recommendations

AMMAN, April 7 (JT) - The Concept Group on Jordanian Archaeology ended a two-day meeting here today with the issuance of several recom-

The group had been invited by His Royal Highness Crown Prince Hassan to follow up on the work of the First International Conference on the History and Archaeology of Jordan in Oxford, England last year, and to help determine

One of the recommendations issued today was that future international conferences be held once every three years rather than biennially, as originally envisaged, in order to provide more time for follow-up and publication between conferences. The next conference is to be held in Amman in 1983, with the theme "The Jordanian Environment: Geog-

The group also considered the recommendation of the Oxford conference that a regional centre for historical and archaeological

A special committee will be set and economic projects.

The group recommended that foreign arcbaeological institutes in Jordan and the Department of Antiquities hold frequent regular consultations to review and coordinate research work being done in the country.

SECRETARY WANTED

A secretary wanted to work for a regional office of an American company on part time basis. Working hours: 3-6:30 p.m.

POSITION VACANT

Embassy seeking native English speaker for part-time editorial work. Maximum 30 hours per week. Good salary for the right person with the necessary qualifications who enjoys working with the English language and, preferably, has some experience in the editing/English material. Only those persons either permanently resident in Jordan or staying a minimum of three years need apply. Please contact: Personnel Office, American Embassy, Tel. 44371, ext. 225.

FURNISHED APARTMENT FOR RENT

Consists of two bedrooms, saton, sitting room, kitchen. Furnished with deluxe furniture. Centrally heated, with hot water and telephone.

On University Road, opposite AL RA'I NEWSPAPER.

Please call: Tel. 66530

Electrical equipment discovered when a burglary ring of three youths was apprehended on Monday. Amman police smash 15-member drug ring

AMMAN, April 7 (JT) — The anti-narcotics squad of the Public Yesierday, Amman police apprehended a burglary ring gang

Security Directorate has apprehended 15 people and charged them with drug dealing. The suspects, all nonlordanians, were arrested while using the drug at the home of one of them in Amman yesterday, a was arrested while trying to sell half a kilogramme hashish. According to the spokesman, there were 28 other incidents in Jordan yesterday. Among these, ne said, incre were in road accidents that resulted in the death of room which they rented for the one person and the injury of eight purpose.

added that another drug trafficker stealing electrical equipment, televisions and radio sets from One of the three was caught by directorate spokesman said. He accident while trying to cash a cheque at a bank without his identity card, the spokesman said. As he was under suspicion and police observation, the young man was interrogated, and eventually admitted that he had two accomplices who stole electrical ances and stored of three youths who specialised in North Yemen

His Majesty Ving Hussein today received a message from North Yemeni president Ali Abdullah Saleh dealing with current Arab affairs and quarters by the North Yemeni information minister, Mr. Has-san Al Lawzi, who arrived in Amman yesterday.

Attending the audience were Jordanian Minister of Information Adnan Abu Odeh and the North Yemeni ambassador to Jordan, Mr. Abdullah Ali Al priorities for government policy relating to antiquities.

rapbical and Historical".

research be established in Jordan. To this end, the group recommended, the existing facilities of the Department of Antiquities should be strengthened and upgraded, and its staff improved, considering the problem the department has in retaining skilled staff at present salary up to catalogue archaeological sites and research work done in Jordan, to help scholars define priorities in their work, a Concept Group source said. According to the source the group also decided to form a second committee from the Department of Antiquities to lay down a comprehensive policy for excavations in the country, particularly at sites threatened by the encroachment of industrial everyday except Fridays.

Salary negotiable Tel. 41338/9

weekly service

every sunday

LATTAKIA/LIMASSOL/ RHODES/PIRAEUS

For information please cell: TAWFIQ ZAATARAH & CO. ROBOX 926436-TEL-42726-TLX. 21889-AREF JABAL - AMMAN_ JRD- CIRCLE PRINCE MOHAMMAD STREET Ammen-JORDAM

LABOURERS URGENTLY REQUIRED BY SAMWHAN COR-PORATION

For Hussein Thermal Power Station project (Zarqa)

1. Welders (tig and arc) 2. Pipefitters

3. Electricians (cable connection) 4. Jinsmith (duct and insulation lagging, fabrication and installation)

Applicants are required:

a) To have a good command of English b) To pass the qualification test

c) To contact site manager for test at 9 a.m. every day from April 8 to April 11.

Site manager Samwhan Corporation Hussein Thermal Power Station Zarga, Jordan.

For details please contact the Ammuni office, Tel. 44030

Phosphate exporters' group meets here today

AMMAN, April 7 (JT) - Delegations from seven phosphateproducing countries will start a five-day meeting at the Sheraton Palace hotel here tomorrow to review a number of research studies and hear the annual report on the activities of the Institut Mondiale de Phosphat (Imphos), the exporters "club" grouping these countries.

The group, meeting here at the invitation of the Jordan Phosphates Mines Company (JPMC). will discuss in particular agricultural studies conducted last year in agricultural in a number of coun-

The JPMC has prepared a programme of field studies and visits by the delegations: to Aqaba. where they will inspect the fer-tiliser plant still under construction there, and the phosphate mines at Ruseifeh and Hasa, as well as a number of tourist and archaeological sites in the country.

Countries taking part in the meeting are Morocco, Tunisia. Senegal, Algeria, Brazil, the USA and Jordan, Imphos has its headquarters in Rahat. The "club," established in 1973, supervises research studies on phosphates and ways of developing methods of using them. It aims to promote phosphate sales on the world mar-

NATIONAL NEWS BRIEFS

AMMAN, April 7 (JT) — Mr. Abdul Hamid Omar, director of the cultural department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, received in his office today the cultural attache of the German emhassy, Mr. Gunther Kneiss, accompanied by Mr. Adolf Perner, the new director of the Goethe Institute. During the meeting they discussed cultural relations between the two countries. Mr. Perner was appointed one week ago to replace Mr. Richard Schmied as director of the Goethe Institute.

IRBID, April 7 (Petra) - Irbid Municipality has embarked on studies for the establishment of a laboratory in Irhid to conduct tests on food stuffs, a municipality spokesman said. The project, he added, will be carried out in cooperation with the Royal Scientific Society (RSS). According to the spokesman a special committee of officials from he Department of Health and the municipality has been set up to conduct a statistical survey of stores and commercial institutions which deal in foodstuffs prior to the opening of the laboratory. Hitherto, samples of foodstuffs have been sent to the Ministry of Health's laboratory in Amman for

JERASH, April 7 (Petra) — The Ministry of Municipal and Rural Affairs and the Environment today endorsed a JD 181,000 hudget for the muncipal council of Sakeb in Jerash District. The budget will finance the construction of a secondary school and the purchase of land to establish development projects, the construction of roads and a new building to house the muncipality. The ministry also today endorsed a budget for the municipal council of Kirbet Al Samra in Mafraq District, It amounts to JD

AMMAN, April 7 (JT) — Nearly I million people visited Jordan's pavilion at the Bari tourist fair in Italy which was held between March 21 and 29, according to Mr. Rafiq Lahham, assistant director of tourism. Mr. Lahham, who supervised the work at the pavilion, said that Jordan, which ticipated in the Bari fair for the past 2 recevied a certificate of merit for its e ... promoting tourism. The Jordanian pavi played posters depicting tourist and arcl ical sites in Jordan, traditional costumes a ples of Jordanian handicrafts and tra industries, as well as brochures and gu tourists, Mr. Lahham said. The Jordanian was organised by the ministries of indutourism in cooperation with Alia, the Redanian Airline

AMMAN, April 7 (Petra) — Arab Leagi taut Secretary General As'ad Al As'ad left today after taking part in the second me the executive board of Arah social affair ters, which concluded on Sunday. He was at Amman airport by the minister o development Mrs. In am Al Mufti, and a of her ministry's officials.

AQABA, April 7 (Petra) - A meeting w. here tomorrow to discuss subjects connect boosting tourism in Jordan and the rol private sector in promoting tourism in acc with schemes included in the new £. development plan. The participants, repre. all public and private sector groups involve tourism industry, will review three working on these subjects.

AMMAN, April 7 (Petra) - Minister of Jawad Al Anani will pay an inspection Aqaba on Thursday and Friday, when he w with officials to discuss subjects pertai workers social security. The minister w Agaba Port, the free zone and an institute. orientation of workers. Dr. Anani will be panied by several of his ministry's offici . others from the Social Security Corporati minister is also scheduled to deliver a lea the workers at the Agaha youth club, on et. development in Jordan.

NEW YORK

WHAT'S GOING ON

Exhibitions

The British Council presents an exhibition of sketches, watercolours and oils by George Kaplanian, a Jordanian artist who specialises in local landscapes, scenes of old Jerusalem and the historical sites of Jordan. The exhibition is open to the public from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. and from 4 p.m. - 7 p.m., at the council in Jahal

The Alia Art Gallery, in cooperation with the Mathaf Gallery in London, presents an exhibition of works by artists of the 19th century Orientalist movement.

The Jordanian Artists' Association presents an exhibition of flower arrangements by Alema Abdallat. The exhibition is open to the public from 9-11 a.m. and from 4-7 p.m., at the association's hall (across the street from the French Cultural Centre) in Jabal Luweibdeh

The Spanish Expedition, in cooperation with the Department of Antiquities, presents "The Works of the Spanisb Archaeological Mission in Jordan", at the Holiday Inn hotel.

The Directorate of Moral Guidance in cooperation with the Department of Libraries, Documentation and National Archives, presents the first exhibition of military books. This exhibition, which comes as part of National Book Week, is open to the public from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., at the Palace of Culture in Sports City.

Film

Under the patronage of Minister of Information Adnan Abu Odeh, the Soviet Cultural Centre presents a documentary film entitled "The Palestinians and the Right to Live". The show will start at 6 p.m. at the centre, near the Third Circle in Jabal An

Play

The Yarmouk University Players present Henrik Ibsen': -Enemy of the People" (in English), at the British Councip.m. Tickets cost 250 fils, in advance or at the door.

Children's Play

The Department of Culture and Arts, in cooperation wit-Jordanian Artists' Association, presents a children's musica entitled "The Rabbit Forest," celebrating International TI Day. The show starts at 4:30 p.m., at the department's there. Jabal Luweibdeh; tickets are on sale at the door,

Dr. Fawzi Zayadin; assistant director of the Department of quities, will present a slide lecture entitled "The Latest coveries in Petra". The lecture will be given at the Ame Centre, off Third Circle in Jabal Amman, at 7 p.m.

Dr. Jawad Al Anani, the minister of labour, will give a kentitled "The Development Challenges of the 1980s in Jor." Public discussion will follow. The lecture will be given a Jordanian Writers' Association headquarters, at 4:30 p.m. The Jordanian Writers' Association headquarters, at 4:30 p.m.

Videotape programme quantities in the s France", at 5 p.m. and "Les spectacles de Fevrier 1981" p.m., at the centre in Jabal Luweibdeh.

AMMAN STOCK EXCHANGE REPORT

Name of Company	Par Value	Traded	High	Low	Pric
Islamic Bank 50%	JD 1.000	2,582	1.730	1.720	1.73
Jordan-Kuwait Bank	JD 1.000	1,650	2.230	2.220	2.22
Jordan Gulf Bank	JD 1.000	6,400	1.530	1.520	1.521
Housing Bank	JD 1.000	500	2.230	2.230	2.23(
Arab Investment Bank	JD 1.000 ·	100	1.630	1.630	1.630
Arah Financial Foundation (Jordan)	JD 10.000	585	13.800	13.750	13.75
Jordan National Bank	JD 5.000	. 200	17.090	17.090	17.090
Arab Bank Co. Ltd.	JD 10.000	15	130.000	130.000	130.00(
Arab Union Insurance Co.	JD 1.000	550	1.500	1.500	1.500
General Insurance Co.	JD 1.000	2,400	1.540	1.530	1.540
Arahian Seas Insurance Co.	JD 5.000	75	10.450	10.450	10.450
Jordan Electricity Co.	JD 1.000	9,738	2.090	2.070	2.070
Arab International Hotels Co.	JD 1.000	1.500	0.940	0.940	0.940
Arabian Investment and International Trading Co.	JD 1.000	21,050	1.110	1.100	1.100
International Contracting and Investments Co.	JD 1.000	23,577	0.860	0.860	0.860
Cattle and Poultry Co.	JD 1.000	1,750	0.620	0.620	0.620
Dar Al Sha'b for Press, Publications and Districution	JD 1.000	1,700	0.950	0.950	0.950
Arab Development and Investments Co.	JD 2.000	846	1.720	1.700	1.700
Jordan Dairy Co.	JD 1.000	3.995	1.260	1.210	1.230
General Mining Co.	JD 1.000	725	1.750	1.740	1.740
Arab Aluminium Industries Co.	JD 1.000	100	1.280	1.280	1.280
Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Co.	JD 1.000	2,400	3.550	3 .5 20	3.550
Arah Chemical Detergents Industries Co.	JD 1.000	500	3.920	3.920	3.920
National Steel Industries	JD 1.000	6,850	1.970	\1.960	1.960
Dar Al Dawa' Development and Investment Co.	JD 1.000	650	3.340	3.340	3.340
MASS Blades Manufacturing Co.	JD 1.000	5,310	0.750	0.750	0.750
Jordan Ceramics Industries Co.	JD 1.000	13,000	1.150	1.120	1.130
Jordan Glass Factories Co.	JD 1.000	350	0.850	0.850	0.850
Jordan Paper and Cardboard Factories Co.	JD 1.000	100	1.600	1.600	1.600
Arab Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Co.	JD 5.000	206	28.950	28.950
Rafia Industrial Co.	JD 5.000	250	3.000	3.000	28.950
Jordan Petroleum Refinery Co.	JD 5.000	905	8.430	8.420	3.000
Jordan Pipes Manufacturing Co.	JD 10.000	100	15.300	15.200	8.430
Jordan Cement Factories Co.	JD 10.000	200	18.320		15.200
•	10.000		10.520	18.250	18.320
Total volume of shares traded on Treader Annil 7 109	1. ID 176 000				•

Total volume of shares traded on Tuesday, April 7, 1981: JD 175,900 Total number of shares traded: 110,859

Government Development Bonds

Number Volume Year of Maturity Par Value Traded Traded JD JD 10.000

,10.100 10.100 Playing at the British Council tonight

Yarmouk U. Players do a splendid job on 'Enemy'

By Fawzia Mai Special to the Jardan Times

nisiries MAN. April 7 — ith Alia NGEROUS BACTERIA whole community, doctor ad Alalius," was the six-column head-the sprawled over the front page the sprawled over the hands of rah enewspaper in the hands of who Tah social few dozen people who unday inded last night's performance the minden last ingui some An Enemy of Al Mufic People", by the Yarmouk versity Players at the British incil.

A make select intellectual audience, subjects och included a member of the an and tinet, university professors, tourism tors and art critics, was thrilled in the and that the Yarmouk Uni-Ticipani ity Players displayed a stangroup of performance rarely three ined in this country. Other itre-lovers will, therefore, be py to know that they have Minether chance to view this an in tertainment of the year' day who orrow evening, again at the ubject ish Council. he min he drama starts as soon as one and an is offered a Anani, y of The People's Messenger. inisin newspaper of the small Nortrity Con ian town in which the play to deline es place. The front page outh class orts the discovery of Dr. omas Stockmann, staffsician at the municipal baths, the baths waters are heavily Nuted by pathogenic bacteria l toxic chemicals. It also prints defence against the charge put by the mayor, and the call for a dic meeting to discuss the issue xh threatens to destroy the

'n's livelihood.

"lemis he controversy over the polon of the haths sounds the me of the pollution of society, I dramatises the fact that the id majority is usually in the Heart bing and the final conclusion British (Et the strongest man is the one the day t stands alone.

The timelessness of Ibsen's play learly reflected in this smallm setting, where the power ts in the hands of the members a few families. Dr. Stockmann, Basem Faquier as a buoyant." character who starts off on a battle for truth.

His more moderate wife. Katherine, is brilliantly rendered by Zein Ghanma. She literally slips into the skin of that perfect housewife, stiff and easily embarrassed; yet very well-mannered. As Mrs. Stockmann's basic concern for her children and a stable home finally gives way to her loyalty for her husband, Zein surpasses herself and actual tears stream down her contorted face as she and her children hurriedly leave the public meeting that brands her busband an Enemy of the People.

The Stockmann's daughter Petra is played by Subair Ammari. who thoroughly adopts the persona of the tight conservativelooking schoolteacher with deep emotions and liberal ideas. The two young sons. Eilif and Morten, are said and Alisar Koheissi, who take up the parts, much to one's surprise, in an extremely relaxed and convincing manner. Morten Kill, owner of the factory which causes the pollution and father of Katherine Stockmann (and who is also called "The Badger" because of his unclean habits), gives Jareer Jarrar ample chance to demonstrate his imaginative acting, punctuated by noisy eruptions of gas from both ends of the digestive tract.

Yousef Bazian, a self-assured youth with ohviously great potential, carries off quite easily the role of the opportunistic Hovstad, ednor of The People's Messenger, who also turns out to he a more or less dedicated revolutionary. Ms. Billing, his assistant and reporter, is played by Lena Al Tall, a talented young lady who instilled much fascination and magnetism into the multiple-faced personality of a young American

Aslaksen, the printer at the newspaper and chairman of the Home Owners' Council, earned great applause right after his first appearance. Hasan Ghussein manages superbly in the role of the slightly simplistic, square, awkward and heavy red-bearded distant central character, is portrayed man given to extremes of emotions. Captain Horster, a seargetic and slightly naive captain and a faithful friend of the

Dr. Stockmann challenges the conscience of those in authority and the people who put them there, as his family look on.

Stockmanns who finally gets betrothed to Petra, is played by

The 11 other players, who run noisily up and down the stage as the participants in the public meeting and later on as the windowsmashers, enjoy identifying with their characters just as much. Improvisation and creative gestures were abundant.

The cast "have done remarkably well," reckons Dr. Ian Carruthers, a professor at Yarmouk and director and producer of the play. "In five performances, they have come very far. They have been very creative, and I am happy to see that,"

In the previous four performances at Yarmouk University, the auditorium was packed every time with 200-odd spectators who formed a "captive audience". "It is difficult to get an interested audience," Dr. Carruthers said. " I realise that in Ammnn, one deals with a preaudience that is to he turned into an audience. In terms of students. we are training them into an audi-

The players are students not

Hasan Ghussein, Thaled Jameel, Yousef Bazian, ... At the public meeting to bear Dr. Stockmann's case, Basem Fagier, Zein Ghanma, Suhair-Ammari and the doctor finds hostility not only from the maynr Yamal Naifeh. (Photos by Sara O'Neil) and his benchmen but also from the people themselves, the "silent majority". Left to right, actors

only of English literature (as is Miss Ammari), but also of biology (Mr. Ghussein), engineering and husiness. There is as yet no course in drama at Yarmouk, but this did not deter Dr. Carruthers from forming a drama group.

The idea, he recalled, stemmed from sheer boredom. "We started the blocking last October," he said, "but didn't start on memorisation until December. The studenis had to come for rehearsals every day from 4 to 6 or 7 p.m. Some of them had to make some sacrifices in their studies for the sake of the play."

Dr. Carruthers agreed with a liitle smile that he had done a tremendous job in training the cast to speak and pronounce words correctly, so much so in fact, that in the opinion of a British member of the audience, they would not disgrace a British stage. Another, Jordanian member of the audience, exclaimed simply, "Yes. I really enjoyed it very much. They are of surprisingly good stan-

Dr. Carruthers praises not so much his own efforts as Lady Luck for providing him with a hunch of such talented youths." In fact," he added, "Lena, Yousef, Jareer and Zein have already participated in drama workshops in Britain. Moreover, Lena Al Tall has been offered a scholarship to continue her studies at a drama school in England. All four also played in last year's production of "The Cherry Orchard," which gave only two performances at Yarmouk.

"This is not a drama course." he stressed, "hut it will he. We are really trying to huild up talent which could later on be used in our cultural centre."

"An Enemy of the People", along with other plays and playreadings from the universities and other drama groups in Jordan, will be performed at the Jerash Festival this coming October. Maybe then the Yarmouk University Players' quality will not be disputed any more, and Dr. Carruthers will not have to sigh. "But we would like a larger audience; it contributes so much to the atmos-

Jordan trade fair set for Baghdad

By Abla Majaj Special to the Jordan Times

AMMAN, April 7 - Business is booming between Jordan and Iraq these days, and this is evidenced by a second trade fair which is to open in Baghdad on the ninth of this month.

Last year a similar event took place in Iraq's capital city, and its success was enormous - JD 1.5 million worth of Jordanian-made products were sold. Plans hadbeen made to open similar fairs in the Iraqi cities of Mosul and Basra this year, but due to the war with Iran, this idea has been suspended for the time being.

However, the up coming fair is expected to he a great success. Mr. Ali Dajani, the director of Amman's chamber of Industry, told the Jordan Times that approximately 200 Jordanian manufacturers will be taking part in this event.

Mr. Dajani said that Iraq has authorised Jordan to sell JD 1 million worth of goods on a retail hasis, but he added that this figure does not include any orders that may be placed by Iraqi merchants. The director explained that part of the fair is to be reserved for exhibitions of products which will not be for sale per se but will show Iraqis what Jordan has to offer and will enable them to order large quantities of the products on display.

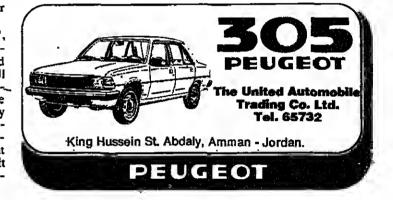

The main idea of this fair, Mr. Dajani said, is "to gain credibility for the Jordanian manufacturers and the confidence of the Iraqi consumer." as well as "to rationalise all export procedures, and to train exporters in the art of exporting, packaging, and pricing."

Each item to be displayed and sold during the 12-day fair has been submitted to the Chamber of Industry here, where it has been examined to ensure that all specifications have been met -- the most important one being that the product has been made in Jordan and is labelled accordingly.

Among the Jordanian products be sold and displayed in Baghdad from April 9-21 are toilet articles, mattresses, clothing, shoes, ladies' handbags, plastic ware, foodstuffs and cigarettes.

Mr. Dajani described the trade relationship between Iraq and Joran as "improving all the time; Iraq is a very dynamic market." He added that "hecause of the deep understanding hetween the Jordanian and Iraqi leaderships, great attention is being paid to the economic side of the relationship between the two countries. We are seeking enterprises which can he made jointly with Iraq -- for example, in metal industries and foodstuffs.

So long as there is goodwill, we are very certain we will succeed." the director concluded.

Dear reader: The Jordan Times would like your cooperation in completing the following survey to help us serve you better. The survey is confidential, and will be used only for internal purposes in the Jordan Times. Please answer all the questions and mail the completed questionnaire to The Editor, the Jordan Times, P.O.Box 6710, Amman, Jordan. Thank you for your cooperation.

Nationality:

រារៈ 🕸 p.a

14505 ili be p

. 21 - 3

æ

e TE

Age:

Occupation:

- 4. How long have you lived in Jordan?
- 5. Purpose of stay in Jordan:
- 6. If you are a visitor, is the purpose of your visit business, it tourism or other?
- How often do you read the Jordan Times: (circle one) daily: a few times a week; occasionally; rarely.
- 8. How many other people besides yourself read your copy of
- Do you read the paper at home, at work, or elsewhere?
- 10. Would you make use of a home or office delivery service?
- 11. How do you obtain your paper now?
- 12. Do you file the newspaper or clip articles for future refer-
- 13. Do you read Arabic-language Jordanian newspapers?
- 14. Do you read Arabic-language Jordanian magazines?

- 15. Do you listen to Radio Jordan news in Arabic?
- 16. Do you watch Jordan Television news in Arabic?
- 17. Do you listen to Radio Jordan news in English?
- 18. Do you watch Jordan Television news in English?
- 19. Do you watch Jordan Television news in French?
- 20. What other sources of news about Jordan do you get, such as embassy, company or school hulletins, foreign newsletters, etc?
- 21. What foreign newspapers do you read regularly?
- 22. What foreign magazines do you read regularly?
- 23. Which foreign radio stations do you listen to regularly for world news?
- 24. In general, do you read the Jordan Times mostly for news about Jordan, the Middle East or the world?
- 25. What do you find most useful in the newspaper (please be
- 26. What do you find least useful?
- 27. Do you read the local news? Regularly? Occasionally? Rarely? Never?
- 28. Do you read the editorials and columns on the opinion

- 29. Do you read the Middle East page?
- 30. Do you read the Economics page?
- 31. Do you read the Features page?
- 32. Do you read the World News page?
- 33. Which of the following features do you read regularly (please circle): Goren bridge, daily crossword, Sunday crossword, Jumble, the Better Half, Peanuts, Andy Capp, Mutt 'n' Jeff, the Horoscope.
- 34. Which of the listings in the Jordan Times Daily Guide do you refer to regularly or often (please circle): Jordan Television, Jordan Radio, BBC, Voice of America, Amman airport, Emergencies (doctors, pharmacies, taxis), cultural centres, service clubs, museums, prayer times, local exchange rates, useful telephone numbers, market prices of fruits and vegetables.
- 35. Do you read What's Going On to find out about activities in
- 36. Do you read the Arab Press Commentary?
- 37. Do you feel the Jordan Times has enough local news for you; too little; too much?
- 38. Would you like more world news, less, or the same amount as you now get every day?
- 39. Would you like more economic news, less, or the same amount?
- 40. Would you like more sports news, less, or the same amount?
- 41. Are you interested in Jordanian sports events?
- 42. Would you read a local gardening column?
- 43. Would you read a column on Arabic and international cook-
- 44. Do you feel the Jordan Times' coverage of the occupied territories and Israel is too much, too little or just about right?

- 45. Do you read the Amman stock exchange listing?
- 46. Do you read the People in the News column? Would you like more news items about people in Jordan, less, or just about the same amount that is now offered?
- 47. Do your refer to the advertisements in the Jordan Marketplace? Often, occasionally, rarely or never?
- 48. Would you read a column on personal beauty and health
- 49. Would you read a column about motoring?
- 50. Would you read a column about travel and tourism?
- 51. Please make any other remarks or suggestions about the Jordan Times, particularly about the kind of coverage you would like more of, and anything in the newspaper now that does not interest you at all.

OPINION

Jordan Times

MOHAMMAD AMAD

MAHMOUD ALEAFER

reponsible Editor: Board of Directors JIMA'A HAMMAD GHAMMAD AMAD RAIA ELISSA

\ditor: MING. KHOURI.

anaging Editor MAAZ D. SHUKAYR

duorial and advertising offices. ORDAN PRESS FOUNDATION wersity Road, P.O. Box 6716, Aminan, Jordan

" ::- phones: 67171-2-3-4 21407 Al Rai JO, Cables: JOR FIMES: Animum, Joes

The Jordan Times is published daily exhept Frish educations and subscription rates are available from Jordan Times advertising department.

A welcome prospect

THE ENCOURAGING signs from the eastern end of the Arab World -- prospects for a negotiated end to Iraqi-Iranian bostilities -- contrast vividly with the deterioration. of the situation in Lebanon. The presence of U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig, jetting around the Middle East in the midst of two raging battlefields, reminds us that the top hem on the Arab agenda is to put our own house in order -relying on our own resources and in keeping with our ownpriorities -- before attempting to talk with a strong voice or a clear message to the rest of the world. It is evident now that the presence of the superpowers in the Middle East is more of an obstacle to an Arab-Israeli peace than it is a guarantor of stability. The path to a coberent dialogue between the Arab World and the superpowers must first pass through a stage of inter-Arab dialogue, and this dialogue can only take place in an atmosphere of security and self-confidence. The threat that Iraq felt from Iran, the complexities of Syria's role in Lebanon and the unenviably. delicate position of the Palestinian national movement in between the other forces in the Arab World have combined to prevent any kind of meaningful discussion in the Arab World about a strategy to make either war or peace toresolve the Palestinian issue. The immediate danger is that superpowers are adept at exploiting such periods of confusion in the Middle East to serve their own ends. This period is no exception. That is why we welcome the prospect of a negotiated settlement between Iraq and Iran, which in turn would allow the Arab World to focus its full attention and resources on the Palestinian issue.

Let me introduce myself:

My name: Amal Ali Hamdan. Place of birth: A small peaceful village called Deir Yassin near Jerusalem, capital of Palestine. My passport: A valid ration card for one person issued by

UNRWA. My home address: Tent No. 1948 in a refugee camp in Amman,

. Jordan. Family status: Single, Fatherless, motherless, brotherless, and sisterless.

My ambition: To see justice prevail over injustice, freedom over oppression, love and peace over war and destruction and the Background:

annals of modern history.

ARAB PRESSCOMMENTARY

AL RA'L Certainly what U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig heard here in Amman, and what he will hear during the rest of his Middle East tour, will give him the opportunity to form a clear conception of the Jordanian stand, which is committed to the unified Arab line stemming from the Amman summit.

Mr. Haig reaffirmed in Tel Aviv that the protection of U.S. strategic interests in the area depends oa Israel and its strength, and that it is time to create an order in the area capable of confronting the so-called Soviet expansionism. He alsosaid that there is an understanding that the establishment of a Palestinian state and the participation of the Palestine Liberation Organisation in peace efforts are to be opposed. Such statements are a repetition of the old Israeli cant. If it is true that Mr. Haig really believes in this, it means that the U.S. administration stands on the opposite side from the facts in our area, and on the opposite side from peace.

U.S. strategic interests, and the legitimate interests of all countries in the area, cannot be safeguarded through Israel. The real guarantee for peace is the establishment of a just, durable and comprehensive peace in the area. Washington should understand this fact.

The "new order" which Mr. Haig is promoting to confront Soviet expansionism in the area has the smell of a "regional alliance" connected with Washington. In all frankness. the Arab Nation refuses to become a party to the dispute between the two superpowers. under any pretext. While the Arab Nation is eager to stay away from Soviet expansionism. it is as eager to stay out from under the umbrella of American protection.

As for the rejection of the establishment of a Palestinian state, and of the PLO, it only means that the present American administration is still a captive of previous U.S. stands. This is a position which will not allow the administration of President Reagan to follow the right path in establishing real peace in the area, because to reject the Palestinian people's right to selfdetermination and insist on not dealing with their sole legitimate representative represents an unfair tutelage on the Palestinian people, which is contrary to international law and norms. We do hope that Mr. Haig will look at the facts in our area with an American, not with an Israeli AL DUSTOUR: In briefing Mr. Alexander Haig on the causes and background of the Palestine issue. His Majesty King Hussein placed before the new U.S. administration objective facts to belp it in the search for peace and stability in the Middle East.

The Palestine issue is the crux of the struggle, and the source of the explosion threatening security and stability in the area. Its solution will remain the key to a .just and compreheasive peace. because for the last 33 years, it has been the key to turbulence and instability in the area. Therefore, any attempt to

A Villager's Ode

My hobbies: Corresponding with other refugees throughout the

On the 9th of April, 1948 the peaceful village Deir Yassin was attacked by a large force of heavily armed Jewish troops. It was a savage and barbaric attack, a massacre, unprecedented in the world, regardless of their religion, nationality, or conviction.

resolve the Israeli-Arab dispute through the "polarisatioa" and "internationalisation" of this dispute will constitute the biggest danger to the future of security and stability in the Middle East and the world.

The cause of tension in the area is not the superpower struggle, but Israel's continued challenge to peace and national Arab security.

His Majesty King Hussein explained to Mr. Haig that the solution of the problem can only come about through a just and comprehensive settlement of the Palestine issue, and by keeping the area free of the policy of polarisation un.: international domination.

Thus the contradictory priorities of the U.S. administration and the Arab Nation dicrate on the American administration the need to review the mistakes of the past and to stop rendering absolute support for Israeli aggression.

Harmless, unarmed civilians were disfigured, mutilated, tortured, and brutally butchered by the blood-thirsty attackers. No one was spared the suffering and humiliation. Old men, women, the sick, expectant mothers, children, even the cattle were terrorised. Females, over ten years of age, were raped and thrown in the village's big well alongside the dead and wounded.

The death toll exceeded 250, not of a population of 700. Amal was nuly fifteen. When rescued next day by a Red Cross relief team, she was still bleeding, having been raped several times by the Jewish attackers. To add to her misery, disgrace, shock, and torture, she learnt that her father Ali, her mother Uruba, her brother Salam and her sister Iman' were all killed. Their house was also completely destroyed.

Amai, like thousands and thousands of her compatriots, panicked after this massacre and fled the country, seeking refuge and protection in neighbouring Arab countries.

Notwithstanding the 33 years of despair, repeated atrocities, abject poverty, and deprivation, Amal, like all her compatriots everywhere, is still seeking justice and remedy and hoping to. regain her human basic rights.

And on this day, the 9th of April 1981, Amal is addressing world conscience and free persons everywhere, in general, and Israelis living in Palestine, in particular.

Her message is:

You may still temporarily have your Israel, But I shall always have my Palestine.

You have your Israel and I have my Palestine. Your Israel was created on the human skulls of innocent people

But my Palestine was created on love, human toleration, an sacrifice.

Your Israel was created as a result of human suffering, genocide, deception and brute force.

My Palestine was created as a result of vision and wisdom. You have your Israel and I have my Palestine.

Your Israel is Mirages, Phantoms, Napalm and a superiority complex. My Palestine is the Holy Sepulchre, the Dome of the Rock and the Church of Nativity. Your Israel is based on racism, all sorts of discrimination and territorial expansion. My Palestine is equality among the Children of God.

Your Israel, your Zionism, is a new form of Nazism. My Palestine is a true expression of non-sectarianism. Your Israel, your Zionism, created an intricate problem of

My Palestine solved your refugee problems created by Nazism. You have your Israel and ber sons, and I have my Palestine and her sons. Who are your sons? Your sons are Abraham Stern, Menachem Begin, Mosbe Dayan, Assassins of Count Bernadottee, rapists of Deir Yassin. You know the sons of my Palestine. The sons of my Palestine

Are Jesus Christ and his apostles They are the "People of the Book".

Believers in God. Revelation, and the Day of Judgement. You have your Israel and I bave my Palestine.

_Talal S. Hamze

JORDAN TELEVISION CHANNEL 3

. Koran Cartoons 6:05 Rainbow BJ. and the B con 6:30 7:15 Programme Preview ... Local Programme 8:00 News in Arabic 3:30 Arabic series 9:30 Programme on Arts 10:15 Hawaii 5-0 News in Arabic 11:05

6:00	Emach occurren
7:00	French program News in French News in Hebriconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerfliconnerflicon
7.20	News in Fiel
/:20	Complete (Popular)
6-10	Comedy: (Bunerus
20.00	Lady Kill
10230	News in Engi
140:15	Hawaii :

CHANNEL 6

RADIO JORDAN 855 KHz, AM & 99 MHz, FM

	7:01	Morning Show
	7:30	News Bulletin
	7:40	Morning Shov
	10:00	News Headline
	10:03	Morning Shov
	10:30
	11:00
	12:00	News Headline
	12:03
	13:00
	13:03
	14:00	News Bulletin
	14:10 14:30
ı	15:00
ļ	16:00
į	16:03
	16:30
ĺ	17:00
ĺ	17:30
ļ	18:00	News Summar
l	48:03
	18:30	Story Time
	19:00	News Desk (News Bulletin
į	F	ress Review, News Reports
۱	19:10	News Report
ļ	19:30	Disc
l	20:30
į	1:00	News Summar
1	.21:03	Evening Show
ĺ	21:57	News Headline
	22:00	Sign o
l

82C WORLD SERVICE 339, 720, 1413 KHz

04:00 Newsdesk 04:30 Country: Style 04:45 Financial News 04:55 Reflections 05:00 World News; 24 Hours News Summary 05:30 Masters of Early Music 05:45 The World Today 06:00 Newsdesk

65:30 The Best of Beecham 07:00

World News; 24 Hours News Summary 07:30 Take One 07:45. Report on Religion 08:00 World News; Reflections 08:15 Peebles' Choice 08:30 Brain of Britain 1981 09:00 World News; British Press Review 09:1S The World Today 09:30 Financial News 09:40 Look Ahead 09:45 Play h My Way 10:15 Divertimento 10:30 100 Years of the Natural History Museum 11:00 World News: News about Britain 11:15 Listening Post 11:30 Tis My Delight 12:00 Radio Newsreel 12:15 Nature Notebook 12:25 The Farming World 12:45 Sports Round-up 13:00 World News; 24 Hours News Summary 13:30 Little Dorrit 14:15 Report on Religion 14:30 The King's Collection 15:00 Radio Newsreel 15:15 Ourlook 16:00 World News: Commentary 16:15 Moments of Being 16:45 The World Today 17:00 World News; Book Choice 17:15 Listening Post 17:30 Take One 17:45 Sports Round-up 18:00 World News; News about Britain 18:15 Radio Newsreel 18:30 Top Twenty 19:00 Outlook: News Summary 19:39 Stock Market Report: Look Ahead 19:45 Short Story 20:00 World News; 24 Hours News Summary 20:30 Assignment 21:00 Network UK 21:15 International Soccer Special 22:00 World News: The World Today 22:25 Book Choice: Financial News 22:40 Reflections 22:45 Sports Round-up 23:60 World News; Commentary 23:15 A House for Mr. Biswas 23:30 Top Twenty

VOICE OF AMERICA

03:30 The Breakfast Show: 06:30 News, pop music, features, lis-Roundup: reports, opinion, anal-English: news, feature "Space and Man." 18:30 Now Music USA 19:00 News Roundup; reports, opinion, analyses. 19:30 VOA. Magazine: Americana, science, culture, letters. 20:00 Special English; news 20:15 Music USA (Jazz) 21:00 VOA World Report 22:00 ments, analyses.

Cairo (EA	7:40
Jedda	8:30
Kuwa	9:1S
Muscat, Dubi	9:30
Aqab Baghdad (SK	9:55
Baghdad (SK	11:15 .
Larnaca, Buchares	13:00 .
(Taron
Cairo (EA	13:10
Jeddah (SV	14:00 .

15:30	Kuwait (KAC
	Cair
17:10	Copenhagen, Athen
17:15	London (BA
17:45	Brussels, Geneva
	Cain
18:25	Cairo (EA
	Rome (AZ
	Cair
19:05 Frank	durt, Damascus (LH
	Rome (AZ
	Bangkok, Abu Dhat
20:00	Beirut (MEA
	Baghda
01:00	Cair

DEPARTURES:

	5:45 Damaso	us, Frankfurt (LH)
	7:00	Beirut
	7:40	Beirut, Paris (AF)
	8:00	Agaba
		Cairo (ÈA)
	9:25	Beirut (MEA)
		London (BA)
		Amsterdam (KLM)
		Cairo
	11.16	Tripoli, Tunis
	12:00	London
	12-20' Ash	, Copenhagen (SK)
	12:20 . Athens	Copenhagen (SK)
	12:30
	14:00	Cairo
	14:15	Lamaca, Bucharest
		(Тагол)
	14:25	Cairo (EA)
		Jeddah (SV)
	15:55	Larnaca (CY)
	16:30	Kuwait (KAC)
	17:00	Baghdad (SK)
		Bahrain, Doha
	19:30	Kuwait
	19:50	Cairo (EA)
	20:00	Baghdad
	20:00	Çairo
		Jeddah
	20:45	Dhahran
		bai, Ras Al Khaima
•		11 TELLEUIG

teners' questions. 17:00 News vses. 17:30 Dateline 18:00 Special News. Correspondents' reports, backgrounf features, media com-

AMMAN AIRPORT

7:40
8:30	Jeddah
9:1S	Kuwait
9:30	Muscat, Dubai
0-55	Agaha
11:15	Baghdad (SK)
13:00	Larnaca, Bucharest
	(Tarom)
13:10	Cairo (EA)
14-00	Jeddah (SV)
A-1100

	•••
Kuwait (KAC)	Α
Cairo	R
Copenhagen, Athens	St
London (BA)
Brussels, Geneva	•
Cairo	_
Cairo (E.A)
Rome (AZ)	AB
Cairo	Fr
nkfurt, Damascus (LH)	C

5:45 Damascus, Frankfurt (LH)
5:45 Damascus, Franktur (LFI)
7:00 Beirut
7:40 Beirut, Paris (AF)
8:00 Aqaba
8:55 Cairo (EA)
9:25 Beirut (MEA)
9:30 London (BA)
10:10 Athens, Amsterdam (KLM)
11:00 Cairo
11:15 Tripoli, Tunis
12:00 London
12:20 . Athens, Copenhagen (SK)
12:30 Cairo (EA)
14:00 Cairo
14:15 Larnaca, Bucharest
(Tarom)
14:25 Cairo (EA)
15:00 Jeddah (SV)
15:55 Larnaca (CY)
16:30 Kuwait (KAC)
17:00 Baghdad (SK)
19:30 Bahrain, Doha
19:30 Kuwait
19:50 Cairo (EA)
20:00 Baghdad
20:00 Cairo
20:30 Jeddah
20:45 Dhahran

DOCTORS: ,,, Yusuf Sammur 25648/63254
Munzir Al-Qarini 76258
Zarqa:
Abdul Karim Al-Khashashnah
83022
Irbid:
A 11 A 1 A T T

RRIVALS:	•	Al-Salam
40	Cairo (EA)	Umar Abu Ghazalai
1S 30	Muscat, Dubai Aqaba	Zarqa: Tariq
:15 :00 L	Baghdad (SK) arnaca, Bucharest (Tarom)	Irbid: Hisham
:10	Cairo (EA)	TAXIS:

CULTURAL CENTRES

American Centre 41520
British Council 36147-8
French Cultural Centre 37009
Goethe Institute 41993
Soviel Cultural Centre 44203
Spanish Cultural Centre 24049
Turkish Cultural Centre 39777
Haya Arts Centre 65195
Al Hussein Youth City 67181
Y.W.C.A 41793
Y.W.M.A. 64251
Amman Municipal Library 36111 University of Jordan Library
843555/843666
SERVICE CLUBS
SENAICE CLODS
Lions Philadelphia Club. Meetings

every second and fourth Wedpesday at the Grand Palace Hotel,

Lions Amman Club. Meetings every first and third Wednesday at the Intercontinental Hotel, 1.30 p.m. Rotary Club. Meetings every Thursday at the Intercontinental

:00	Beirut
:40	Beirut, Paris (AF)
:00	Aqaba
:55
:25	Beirut (MEA)
	London (BA)
0:10	Athens, Amsterdam (KLM)
1:00	Cairo
1:15	Tripoli, Tunis
2:00	London
2:20	. Athens, Copenhagen (SK)
2:30
4:00	Cairo
4:15	Larnaca, Bucharest (Tarom)
	(Тагош)
4:25	Cairo (EA)
	Jeddah (SV)
	Larnaca (CY)
	Kuwait (KAC)
7:00	Baghdad (SK)
	Bahrain, Doha
	Kuwait
	Cairo (E.A)
	Baghdad
	Cairo
	Jeddah
	Dhabran
1.15	Dubai Das Al Vasima

EMERGENCIE

OCTORS: ,,, usuf Sammur 25648/63254
Aunzir Al-Qarini 76258
Zarqa:
83022
Irbid:
Ali Al-'Umari 72032/73974
PHARMACIES:

36730 4273

Khalid J-Shahid 21091 25095 lania S1998

Hotel, 2.00 p.m.

1.30 p.m.

Cairo . Jeddah Ohahran Khaima	Ambulance (government) 7 Civil Defence rescue 6 Jordan Electric Power Co. (emergency) 36
ES	Municipal water service (emergency)
	Najdeh roving patrol rescue police, (English spoker hours a day for emergency 21111, 3 Airport information (ALIA) 92205/9
	Jordan Television
48/63254 76258	Radio Jordan

omatoes 260.	150
and at	160 ggplant240
otatoes (imported)	90
larrow (small)	150
farrow (large)	80
ducumber (small)250 ducumber (large)140	190
ucumber (large)140	100
eas 280	280
tring beans 430	350
otatoes (local)	100
ettuce (bead)	40
enuce (head)	150
ell pepper 550	550
abbage70	50
pinach	90
nions (dry)	100

Philadelphia Rotary Club. Meet- . ings every Wednesday at the Holiday Inn, 1:30 p.m.

MUSEUMS

Folkore Museum: Jewelry and costumes over 100 years old. Also mosaics from Madaba and Jerash (4th to 18th centuries). The Roman Theatre. Amman. Open-ing hours: 9.00 a.m. - 5 p.m. Yearround. Tel. 23316 Popular Life of Jordan Maseum

100 to 150 year old items such as costumes, weapons, musical instruments, etc. Opening hours: 9.00 a.m. - 5.00 p.m. closed Tuesdays. Tel. 37169 Jordan Archaelogical Museum: Has an excellent collection of the antiquities of Jordan. Jabal Al Qal'a (Citadel Hill). Opening hours: 9.00 a.m. - 5.00 p.m. (Fridays and official holidays 10.00 a.m. - 4.00 p.m.). Closed on Tues-days. Tel. 30128 Jordan National Gallery: Contains a collection of paintings, ceramics, and sculpture by contemporary Islamic artists from most of the Muslim countries and a collection of paintings by 19th Century orientalist artists. Muntazah, Jabal

Luweibdeh. Opening hours: 10.00 a.m. - 1.30 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. -6.00 p.m. Closed on Tuesdays.

Fajr

Sunrisc

Dhuhr

AST .

Maghreb ...

Japanese en

PRAYER TIMES

... 5:1S . 11:40

. 3:14

'Isha	. 7:22
LOCAL EXC RATE
Saudi mai	110 1111 197.00
Lebanese postori	80.3 KO.9
Syrian penni.	. 50 4 50.9
Iraqi dinar	730 0 741.6
Kuwaiti Jimut	11174:117.8
Egyptian pound .	11/1 30/11 6
Qalari rival .	88 5 89 1
UAE dirham.	88 88 5
Omani mal	9 at 3 9 3 8 3
U.S. dallar	371 - 5 - 5
U.K. sterling	7.8 - 2
W. German mark .	150215
Swiss franc	Ind 8:11:4 v
Italian line	104.0.10
(for every 100)	11: 2:2: a French hand
Dutch guilder
Swedish crawn
Belgiun tranc	91.92.7

(for every 100) 151.2/152 1

USEFUL TELEPHONE NUMBERS

ance (government) 75111	Firstaid, fire, police
Defence rescue	Fire headquarters
Electric Power Co. (emergency) 36381-2 ipal water service (emergency) 37111-3	Cablegramme or telegramme
headquarters	Telephone:
a day for emergency 21111, 37777	Information
t information (ALIA) 92205/92206	Jordan and Middle East trunk calls
Television 73111	Overseas radio and satellite calls
Jordan 74111	Telephone maintenance and repair serv

MARKET PRICES

atoes	150		Carrots100	80
			Turnips 60	60
dant	160		Bananas	200
toes (imported)120	90		Bananas (from makhmar)	160
row (small)	150		Dates	340
row (large) 110	80		Apples (American, Japanese	240
imber (small) 250	190		. sphice (i mass-sum, sepantes
imber (large)	100	-	. 1
	280	-	red, waxed)440	440
g beans430	350		Apples (Double Red)	200
toes (local)	100		Apples (Starken) 180	140
oce (head)	40		Apples (Golden)	160
iflower 200	150		Oranges (Shammouti)	140
pepper 550	550		Oranges (Valencia)150	100
Age	50		Oranges (Waxed) 170	170
ach	90	•	Grapefruit	100
ons (dry)	100		Lemon	160
ons (green) 110	110		Coconut (apiece)	200
ic	150		Water Melons230	230

FORECAST FOR WEDNESDAY, APR. 8, 1981 3:46 .

YOUR DAILY from the Carroll Righter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Forget romantic and idealistic matters today and put your concentration and attention upon working out a specific plan that will give you many benefits in the future. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Put aside recreation for now and engage in career matters that are important to your welfare. Be careful of nutsiders. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Take steps to improve your appearance and make a fine impression on others.

Bring your finest talents to the fore. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Have talks with close ties concerning new pians and come to the right decisions. Don't neglect business matters.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Keep busy at tasks that can give you added income in the days ahead. Be more cooperative with others.

LEO iJuly 22 to Aug. 21) New ideaa you have can be made more practical if you analyze them accurately. This can be a fine day for you. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Take extra time to put your business affairs in better order. Be aure not to lose your temper with anyone today. LIBRA |Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Ynu bave many duties to perform now, so postpone less important activities for the time being, and get them done. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Long talks with friends bring about fine new arrangements for tha future. Social meetings are hest in the evening. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Make sure you keep any promises you have made and handle all duties that apply to you. Be logical. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Be sure to complete any work laft undone before taking on a new assignment. Be more encouraging to others.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Knnw what your responsibilities are and how best to handle them. Be kind and understanding of others. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Good day to confer with associates and clear up any possible misunderstanding with them. Take it easy tonight. 1F YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . be or ahe will possess much ability and should be given the fineat possible education that will prove most belpful during lifetime One who will abide by the ethical standards in life. A good family life in this chart. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to youl

MIDDLE EAST

Saudi Arabia cuts diplomatic ties with Afghanistan

ther the decided to cut off diplomatic Their decided to cut on unpositions with Afghanistan, the ial Saudi Press Agency er comperted.

Seekings quoted a Foreign Ministry as eaving the decision her control taken because of conher combbeen taken because of comber and bed Soviet military inter-addresse ecember 1979.

Tal, and best by Islamic nations against Soviet intervention in ianistan and was the first state commend a boycott of the ow Olympic Games.

e Foreign Minister, Prince Al Faisal, said in an interview last year that there was a discrepancy between Soviet support for the rights of the Palestinian people and its intervention in Afghanistan.

Saudi neganisations have sent millions of dollars in aid to Atghan rebels fighting the Soviet-hacked government of President Babrak Karmal through the Jeddah-hased secretariat of the 40-member Islamic Conterence Organisation

The Foreign Ministry statement was issued hours before U.S. Secrejary of State Alexander Haig was due to arrive in Saudi Arabia

It said Saudi Arabia had been watching with deep concern what was happening to a Muslim country (Afghanistan) as a result of the continued Soviet military intervention contrary to United Nations and Non-Aligned movement resolutions.

"In the light of the continued illegal regime in Kabul, which came to power with the assistance of a foreign power and was not reengnised by the people of Afghanistan, the government of Saudi Arabia decided to cut relations with the Kahul regime," the statement said.

Saudi Arabia hoped this situation, which the communists had created, would be ended by the struggle of the Afghan people and with help of Islamic and other

Israelis elect new leaders of Histadrut

TEL AVIV, April 7 (R) - Voting in the elections for Israel's powerful Histadrut trade union federation got off to a slow start ioday, with less than half as many votes recorded by midday as in the last election in 1977, a union

Election officials attributed the low turnout mainly to stormy weather in many places and the fact that workers had not been given the day off to vnte.

The officials said they expected larger numbers of people to vote after work hours.

In one incident this morning, a booth in a synagogue in the southem coastal town of Ashkelon failed to open because voters were required to wear head coverings before entering the building. It took several hours to find enough skullcaps to enable the booth to

More than 1.5 million Israelis are expected to vote today to choose leaders of the Histadrut. and the result could serve as an indicator for the outcome of next Junc's general election.

Eleven parties are contesting the election. The Labour Party, which formed Histadrui 60 years ago and has dominated it ever since, is confidently expected to retain absolute control.

The right-wing Likud Party of Prime Minister Menachem Begin believes it can increase its influence in the trades union movement, having made regular gains in recent Histadrut elections, which are held every four years. Latest opinion polls show that Likud can expect about 30 per cent of the vote, compared to 28.6 last time. This would be a considerable achievement for the ruling party in view of the current economic situation in Israel, where inflation is running at 130

The polling booths opened at 7 a.m. local and the results are expected sonn after midnight.

Labour, according to the polls. can also be expected to increase its majority to about 60 per cent.

Housing Minister David Levy. who heads the Likud list and is very popular among workers of Sephardi origin who came to Israel mainly from Africa and Asia, is believed chiefly responsible for Likud's popularity among nrganised labour, observers said. Mr. Levy was born in Morocco.

say includes the sale of five airbone warning and control system (AWACS) aircraft to Saudi Arabia and the upgrading of its F-15 fighters. Congressman William Lehman.

A U.S. government plan to sell sophisticated air defence equipment to Saudi Arabia came under renewed criticism at a con-

A State Department official said agreement was close on the-deal, which government sources gressional hearing vesterday.

a Florida Democrat, told the hearing the planned sale and other arms transfers to the Middle East meant further instability in the Middle East and invited the erosion of Israel's military superior-

"Supplying F-15 enhancements and AWACS to the Saudis, in terms of U.S. interests, raises grave doubts regarding the Middle East regional halance of power." he told a House of Rep-

WASHINGTON, April 7 (R) resentatives foreign affairs sub-

In congressional hearings

Saudi request for U.S. equipment is criticised again

committee. The Saudi deal is expected to create heated controversy when it is sent to Congress after the Easter recess. Many senators have already registered their oppos-

Congressman Tom Lantos, a Democrat from California. described the Saudi Arabian govemment as "unstable" and urged that the AWACS remained under U.S. control.

Lt. Gen. Ernest Graves, direcfor of the Pentagon - Defence Security Assistance Agency, said the specific equipment to be sold with the planes was still being dis-

Defending the sale, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs Peter Constable said the war between Iran and Iraq had demonstrated that Saudi resources and installations were inadequately protected.

triggers World Bank debate request nd wash)ITOR'S NOTE: This is Part Two of a four-part series on recent PLO observer debate for the joint annual meetings of ad a spe World Bunk and IMF, Part One appeared in the Jordan mes three days ago.

> By Bob Lebling Fawzi Asmar

 G_{CC}

anium, Palestine Liberation Organele procon (PLO) observer conersy first erupted in the acting mer of 1979, several months palese re the joint annual meetings he World Bank and IMF duled for Belgrade. Yugos-

June of that year, New Zea-Prime Minister Robert Mul-1, the 1979 chairman of the 'd of governors of the bank fund, received a formal lest for observer status from. Walid Qamhawi, president of PLO's economic unit, the stine National Fund.

12mamhawi sent similar letters at ame time to the secretaries of pank and the fund, but the leto Mr. Muldoon was the key or under section 5 (B) of the aws of the Bretton Wonds itutions, the chairman of the ad of governors was the sole on empowered to invite rvers to the annual meetings in consultation with the execudirectors" of the two institu-

lr. Muldoon took the PLO's PRABest to the bank and fund ative directors in July, for the Jired consultations.

did not take him long to disr that a majority of the direcunder the leadership of the npposed extending an inviin to the PLO.

heoretically, Mr. Muldoon d have gone against the wishes manis he U.S.-dominated executive trainteners and invited the PLO iet whivay. There was nothing in the aws that required the chaircreation to secure the agreement of mpone directors — all he had to do consult with them.

ut Mr. Muldoon decided to : The Western position. In Sepon wher he informed Dr. Qamhawi he was "not in a position" to the lose the PLO to the Belgrade , टंटर डे tings.

he stage was then set for the erp be und meetings themselves, erp be the need in Yugoslavia later days to month. The finance ministers other economic officials of ave k/fund member-enuntries. rate) is serve as the governors of the institutions, gathered in Belgme wie in the last week of Sepnot aber. Also present was Dr. thawi of the PLO, although delaied from the bank/fund meety delay themselves. The PLO translate omic official was there to ath in the Group of 77, an organare som of the Third World states ing membership in the Bretwar Woods Institutions. e Group nf 77 included well والم a hundred developing coun-

ess a side-meeting or caucus

- 85 per cent, in fact, of the o coor the world Bank the IMF. p a draft resolution sup-ing observer status for PLO. Group of 77 unanimously nie winved the resolution, and fored it to chairman Muldoon. this point the lines could not been more clearly drawn; the or and World favoured PLO ster rver status, the Americans Europeans opposed it.

AP r. Muldoon found it imposs-to ignore what amounted to and the members in the and World Bank.

2 referred the PLO's appliin to the joint procedures natee, which studied the mat-October 1 and recomded that Mr. Muldonn set up

"an informal working party of governors" to look into the merits of the case and report its findings director for the bloc of countries of which Pakiston is a member.

in time for the 1980 annual meet-

Three meetings were held in Paris in late 1979 and early 1980. The Arah viewpoint was represented on the enumittee by Pakistan (in its capacity as a member of the Islamic conference) and Dr. Muhammad Finaish of Lihva, IMF executive

In addition to Pakistan, the developing countries of Indonesia. Yugoslavia and Nigeria served on the first Mul-ings, slated for Washington, D.C.

The working party — to become known as the first Muldnon Committee - was duly estahlished. Chaired by Muldoon himself and composed of eight countries - four developing states and four industrialised countries the committee began thrashing out the thorny issues involved.

Organisation (PLO) started in 1977 at Belgrade. The request was placed in front of the U.S.-supported executive board of directors, which refused the request. But the pity is that Mr. Muldoon, the chairman, also backed the Western decision. The PLO executive didn't miss the chance to place this matters. These agencies included the trun Woods Institutions precluded (UNDP), the U.N. Industrial Development -Organisation --(UNIDO), the Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO), "the Economic and Social Cnuncil

"The PLO has special responsibility toward 3.5 mil- living under the most appalling conditions in refugee eratinn Organisatinn was a full member of such international and regional organisations as the

Non-Aligned Conference, the Group of 77, the League nf Arab States, the Arab Monetary Fund,

the Islamic Development Bank

and the U.N. Economic Commission for Western Asia

(ECWA). ECOSOC and the U.N. General Assembly had already issued resolutions urging all agencies and organisations within the U.N. system to maintain close cooperation with the PLO. The World Bank and the IMF are part of the U.N.

status pointed out that there was another important reason why the PLO should be allowed to sit in on bank/fund meetings, namely the special role of the World Bank in assisting disadvantaged peoples.

Pro-PLO advocates noted that "the Palestine Liberation Organisation has special responsibility

tnward 3.5 million Palestinians, some 1.5 million of whom are living under the most appalling conditions in refugee camps. A great deal of welfare and development work is being carried out by the PLO for the benefit of these peo-status, meanwhile, claimed that the "special nature" of the Bret-

Opponents of PLO observer

Supporters of PLO observer observer status.

They also claimed that acceptance of the PLO application might have "adverse effects" on the bank of fund, such as the withdrawal of contributions or financial cooperation by certain member states - interpreted by some to mean a vieled threat by the U.S. in pull out of the Bretton

Woods Institutions if the PLO

however, said these arguments against PLO observership were faulty in both fact and in logic.

They pointed out that the PLO was an observer in a number of non-political, economic and financial institutions, such as UNDP: UNIDO, IFAD and None of these institutions has been adversely affected by the PLO's presence, and all of them are dependent upon contributions from member countries, the Arab

In addition, the Arab position held that the "special nature" of was an argument for, rather than important source of multilateral development assistance, the bank and the fund should take interest in an organisation which is doing.

development and welfare work for Having become the most against, PLO observer status.

The Arabs and their allies, were made an observer.

FAO.

argument went.

tion Pulestinians, some 1.5 million of whom are - camps.

doon Committee. The four industrialised states on the panel were

France, West Germany, Belgium

close to the committee, "there was no provision in the resolution establishing the en mmittee to provide for the breaking of a tic vote.

As it turned out, the committee was evenly split on the PLO question - the four developing countries favouring observer status and the four industrialised states

Committee's final report simply set forth the arguments pro and con on the PLO observer issue.

and reached no definite conwas forwarded to the new chairman of the board of governors,

Tanzanian Finance Minister Amir

What exactly were — and are —

The Arabs and their Third World allies marshalled a number of cogent reasons wby the PLO should be allowed to observer

the PLO already enjoyed observer status at the U.N. and in an array of specialised U.N. agencies dealing with economic and social mat-

First of all, they pointed out that the arguments for and against

Jamal, for his consideration.

PLO observer status?

bank/fund meetings.

In June 1980, the panel's report

As a result, the first Muldoon

"Unfortunately", said a source and New Zealand.

opposing it."

clusions.

last the new board chairman, took a healthy step in inviting the PLO as an observer to the 1980 meetings.

ter again before the Group of 77. At

The first controversy over observer

status for the Palestine Liberation

U.N. Development Programme a role for the PLO. The Americans and Europeans argued that the World Bank and IMF were "development, financial and monetary" institutions quite different from the "political" institutions like the U.N. in (ECOSOC), and many others. which the PLO has been granted In addition, the Palestine Lih-

1.5 million among the poorest and most disadvantaged poeple in the world," the Arah position main-

Opponents of the PLO then claimed it was bank/fund practice to send invitations to three categories of observers; development institutions, international pr regional organisations, and countrics with pending membership applications. The PLO, they said. did not fit into any of these

The Arahs countered by noting that there was no legal basis, in terms of the institutions by-laws, for any system of classifying ohservers into categories.

"In fact, the list of ohservers has grown unsystematically over the years with no reference to any conscious classification of ohservers", they said.

"This classification was apparently invented on this particular occasion not so much because it corresponds to historical experience, but perhaps because it was thought hy some to be convenient for the exclusion of the PLO."

The Arab view was that observers should not be chosen according to "formalistic" categories. but rather on "the extent to which the would-be observer its actually ngaged in development work and is thus likely to benefit from coming into contact with international development institutions."

This was the only relevant criterinn, the Arabs said, and based on it, the PLO was eminently qualified to be an observer.

The PLO's apponents then argued it would be a mistake to accept a national liberation ninvement like the PLO as a bank/fund ohserver, because this would open the door to other liberation movements. The Arabs rejected this argu-que status as an organisation fully recognised by the U.N., and said it was "a patently false analogy to equate the PLO with other liberation movements which are far from being recognised by the world community. The Arabs pointed out that a number of the countries opposed to PLO observer status were motivated hy political considerations rather than the merits of the case.

ment. They cited the PLO's uni-

As one official put it, "this is not the first time that some of the major shareholders in the bank and the fund have tried to impose their national policies on the Bretion Woods Institutions.

"This is one of the gravest dangers threatening the integrity of multilateral development institutions, and is a negation of the very concept of multilateralism."

The target of this strong lan-guage was of course the U.S. and its European allies. These countries were not persuaded by the arguments of the Arabs and their Third World supporters, and so that stalemate over the PLO issue continued into the summer of 1980, when the real battle of power and principle erupted.

After considering both sides of the issue in depth, the new board chairman of the bank and fund, Tanzanian Finance Minister Jamal, took the bold step of inviting the PLO as an observer to the 1980 meetings.

The next installment in this series will take the reader behind the scenes at the World Bank and IMF. the Bretton Woods Institutions and reveal the details of the U.S .inspired manocuvres to revoke Mr. Jamal's invitation to the PLO.

Part Three will also detail the personal involvement of former President Jimmy Carter in these inanoeuvres, as the U.S. and its allies joined battle with major Arab

KLM, the Royal Dutch Airlines

announces

in the developing world. (Saudi

the opening of three weekly flights from Amman to Europe with direct routes to the USA, Canada, Central and South America. Flight schedule:

Friday: 6:40 a.m. for Beirut and Amsterdam

Sunday: 8:50 a.m. for Beirut, Athens and Amsterdam

Wednesday: 10:15 a.m. for Athens and Amsterdam.

KLIM KLIM

for information call your KLM agent KLM's mair office a King Hussein Street Tel. 22175/ 22176 or KLM, Amman Airport: Tel. 91401/252.

Fly via Frankfurt and we'll give you a world of Lufthansa offers you 4 weekly flights from Amman to Frankfurt, every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Arriving at Frankfurt eirport at 11.55 you will have immediale connections to the rest of Germany, Europe and beyond.

For further information contact your nearest IATA trevel agent or Luithansa office: Jordan Intercontinental Hotel, Jabal Amman, Jordan. Tel: 44236/41305/42738 connections.

Lufthansa

ECONOMY

Could Arabs double oil reserves?

and use of enhanced oil field technology could more than double the recoverable oil reserves of the main Arah producing countries, a vice-president of Italy's state oil company AGIP said

Mr. Marcello Colitti told a seminar that reserves in known oil

Poles pay more for Soviet oil

WARSAW. April 7 (R) -- Poland's 1981 bill for crude oil and refined products from the Soviet Union will be 30 per cent higher than last year, the official PAP news agency said vesterday.

It added that Poland would still be paying 40 per cent less from the 16.1 million tonnes of oil and products which it will get from the Soviet Union than if it had to ohtain these on the world market.

Oil prices within the COM-ECON East European economic grouping are fixed by a formula which has then rise annually to the average non-communist world price for the preceding five years.

Petroleum Exporting Countries (OAPEC), were put at 336.2 billion barrels-about balf the world

Enhanced discovery techniques could add 160 hillion barrels during the next 20 years, with 90 billion harrels more being added as higher prices and further advances

While ensuring a steady increase this cushions the COM-ECON customers against sudden shocks like OPEC's 1979 doubling of crude prices.

The AGIP official said new disbarrels more, although he added that the rate of exploratory dril- back into exploration, fields in the Organisation of Arab in technology make it economic to ling in Arab countries bad get even more oil from known declined since the mid-1970s. Oil fields. more in the Arab states and the coveries could produce 123 billion countries would have to show more readiness to put oil revenues

Yuwait denies oil-loading curbs

FUWAIT, April 7 (AP) — Official sources denied as untrue a London report that Fuwait has suspended oil loading by three major western companies in an effort to gain premium price.

A senior official of the Oil Ministry said negotiations were still on with Royal Dutch Shell, British Petroleum and Gulf Oil of America in hopes of reaching agreement on a $3 a barrel surcharge. The London report, citing industry sources and published by a number of Gulf Arab papers, had claimed that the three oil companies were rejecting the premium and that Yuwait was halting loading crude oil to them. "uwait's official price is $35.5 a barrel. The premium was being justified on the bases of access to large quantities of crude oil on long-term contracts.

ECONOMIC NEWS BRIEFS

Turkey adopts OECD guidelines

PARIS, April 7 (AP) - Turkey today formally adopted the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development's guidelines for multinational enterprises and the declaration in international investments. The move was announced at a meeting of the OECD council as part of Turkey's programme designed to attract private foreign investments.

Mr. Aatur Memduh, Turkey's ambassador to the OECD, told the council that the encouragement of private foreign investment "constitutes one of the major targets" of his country's economic stability programme announced last year.

He said Turkey introduced new regulations and facilities for foreign investors and has taken important measures to minimise for-

Turkey is seeking aid commitments from OECD donor countries of about $1.5 hillion this year, up from $1.2 hillion in 1980. An OECD "pledging session" is expected to be held early next month.

Alitalia strike disrupts Rome Airport ROME, April 7 (AP) - Italy's flag airline Alitalia today cancelled most international flights originating at Rome's Leonardo Da Vinci Airport as some flight mechanics began a three-day strike. A three-hour walkout by luggage handlers delayed some domestic

LONDON EXCHANGE RATES

The mechanics called the strike to push for pay increases. The Italy's air traffic was expected to be disrupted from April 14-20.

Lebanon raises discount rate

BEIRUT, April 7 (R) - Lebanon's Central Bank today raised it-discount rate from 10 to 13 per cent to stem borrowing by com

Cash liquidity has run short among the more than 80 Lebanese and foreign commercial hanks based in Beirut, and the commercial bank

The Central Bank, which is trying to restrict the money supply a

an anti-inflation policy, raised its interest rate to check the amount o have been seeking to borrow cash from the Central Bank.

strikers belong to autonomous unions, which aren't part of the over the busy Easter week, by a strike of Italian pilots demanding a National Labour Federation.

doubling of their salaries and benefits.

mercial hanks, the Central Bank announced.

borrowing, a Central Bank spokesman said.

LONDON, April 7 (R) - Following are the huving and selling rate for leading world currencies and gold against the dollar at the close o. trading on the London foreign exchange and hullion markets today

One sterling 2.1925/35 One U.S. dollar 1.1g50/53 2.1375/85 2.3690/3710

> 1.9510/25 35,02/06 1066,00/1068.00 213.40/60 4.6635/45 5.4325/50

Swedisb crowns Norwegian crowns Danish crowns

6.7400/25 One ounce of gold 512.50/513.50 U.S. dollar Canadian dollar West German marks Dutch guilders Swiss francs Belgian francs Italian lire Japanese yen

LONDON STOCK MARKET

LONDON, April 7 (R) — Equities and government bonds closed

The rise was at the top end of most operators' estimates and U.S. shares were also lower while Canadians were mixed.

Despite technical difficulties

U.S.S.R. hopes for higher oil production

MOSCOW, (R) — The Kremlin fuel-hungry Soviet Union, short of lion b/d and tapering of pro- attract pioneer families to Siheria, secret in the Soviet Union, oil measures throughout industry at dismisses a U.S. Central Intel- hard currency, using military mus- duction from other sites in the the government has found that oil industry officials describe West- the Soviet communist party conligence Agency (CIA) view that Soviet oil output is stagnating and may decline, but its own figures now show its hopes of higher production to be very modest indeed.

The published output target for 1985 is 12.4 to 12.9 million barrels a day (b/d), compared with 12 million b/d pumped out last year by the world's higgest producer.

And by 1990 output will rise to only to about 13.5 million b/d according to figures given at a recent Moscow press conference. Exports to Eastern Europe are being frozen at 1980 levels for five years while Western oil industry experts foresee a decline in sales to the non-communist world, running at more than one million b/d in recent years and accounting for nearly half of the Soviet Union's hard currency earnings.

. Moscow's cagerness to conclude a multi-billion dollar scheme to sell Siberian gas to Western Europe apparently indicates recognition that reliance on oil as an export earner must be reduced.

These developments have rekindled interest in the 1977 CLA forecast that in the mid-1980s the Soviet bloc would become a net importer of oil. It led some Westem commentators to envisage a hard currency, using military muscle to ensure preferential supplies from the Gulf.

Soviet officials regard such views as malicious propaganda while the CIA is reviewing its own

The key to Soviet oil production will be Western Siberia, an area roughly three times the size of France, where a crash programme to develop buge oil reserves began 15 years ago. Western Siberia accounted for just over half total Soviet output last year and Kremlin planners count on rising production there to offset declines in old fields elsewhere.

On a recent visit to Tyumen, the administrative centre, Western correspondents found oil industry officials full of confidence, although they confront formidable difficulties, including rising costs, sbortages of manpower, technology and natural obstacles.

In the early 1970s, Soviet oil experts concentrated their efforts around the middle of the river Ob. discovery of the giant oilfield of Samotlor and other easily exploitable fields caused oil production to surge. But oil industry officials in the Tyumen say output from Samotlor bas now levelled off at 3.0g mil-duction from other sites in the area means planners now face the prospect of moving into markedly tougher terrain further north.

The region's chief oil engineer, Mr. Nikolai Zakharchenko, indicated that new exploitation over the next five years will concentrate on an area of about 14,400 square kilometres north of the main towns of Surgut and Nizhnevar-

The terrain is like a sponge. Oil lies beneath vast areas of uninhabited swamp-lands that swallow up roads, railways and huildings -and buge sums of money.

Laying one kilometre of surfaced road in the north of the region can cost up to one million roubles ($1,417,000), oil industry officials calculate. "We have to hring in everything — men, machinery, sand, wood and concrete. We even have to bring in the earth," one official Further north still, oil lies trapped beneath a bed of permafrost, bundreds of metres thick. There is also the problem of attracting manpower to an undeveloped region of harsh winters and scorching summers when rapacious mosquitoes descend in swarms. In spite of ambitious plans to men -- some earning as much as 1,000 roubles ($1,400) a month. more than seven times the average salary -- prefer flying in by helicopter to drilling sites for short spells and then return home. 1 Oil industry officials will not put an average figure on how much it costs to prospect, drill and exploit one oil well, but the government invested 22 billion raubles ($31 billion) in Western Siberia in the last, deputy director of the region's oil five-year period.

Some Western experts believe the increasing cost of exploitation alone will be a severe brake on oil production in the region in the near future.

Technology causes no problems present officials said in Tyumen, but the Soviet Union may have to turn to the West for drilling equipment if deeper deposits are to be exploited over the next 10 years. Japan, Italy and Yugoslavia provide pipes and pipe joints. France computer technology and the United States compressor pumps.

Mr. Zakbarcbenko said Soviet equipment was adequate for present drilling depths of 3,200 metres though new technology would be required if drilling went deeper in the next 10 years.

While fuel reserves are a state

the government has found that oil industry officials describe Westem Siberia's fuel potential as "unimaginable".

But there are signs that planners regret the over-exploitation and wastage of resources from wellsituated sites in the early 1970s.

The natural obstacles in Western Siberia are highlighted by the example of the Salimskoye field in the middle of the river Oh area. Mr. Yevgeny Yefreemov, a scientific research institute in Tyumen, said the Salimskoye field had been pinpointed about 12 years ago and had "probably gigantic' reserves.

But only a tiny amount of oil has been extracted from the site and long-term prospects for significant exploitation are uncertain, he

High underground temperatures and pressures congeal the highly-viscous oil making it impossible to extract with existing A similar problem exists with the Russkoye field further north the first part of this decade shows but the current five-year plan pro- clear signs that Kremlin planners, vides for continued experimental work to exploit both fields.

Tikhnov called for fuel-saving earner.

the Soviet communist party con-

Soviet planners say the 1980s will see a shift towards coal and nuclear energy. But with the coal industry in a had stare and nuclear power still relatively in its infancy, Western experts believe such a switch is still many years away.

Oil is crucial to Moscow's role in the world economy because of its export earning power.

Western analysts say 3.1 to 3.2 million h/d of Soviet oil went for export in 1979, almost a quarter of total output for the year, accounting for 34.2 per cent of all Soviet exports. But with Moscow pledged to keep oil supplies to its allies pegged at around 1.6 million b'd and reluctant to allow an energy squeeze to slow down growth at home. Western analysts believe Soviet oil sales to the West will be the first to be cut if reductions are

The Soviet economic plan for with an eye to making the Soviet Union less reliant on oil supplies Soviet planners are meanwhile to the West, intend to make gas looking to trim domestic demand replace oil by 1985 as the Soviet for oil and Prime Minister Nikolai Union's chief hard currency around the day's lowest levels following the Bank of England's estimate that sterling m3 rose % PCT in the month to mid March, dealers said. At 1500 the FT index was down 4.6 at 528.9.

long dated government bonds were marked down 1/2 point or more, having previously shown narrowly mixed movements Longs closed ¼ point lower and shorts easied around ¼ point.

Royal Bank of Scotland was actively traded after the announcement it had received an approach which may lead to a counter offer for the whole of its share capital. Royal Bank ended 24p higher at 168 while Standard Chartered, which last month made an agreed bid for Royal Bank, added 10p after figures Lloyds, which has a 16 PCT stake in Royal Bank, was up 2p.

BICC, which said it had a £23m Middle East cable contract, was tomorrow's results Racal fell on while ho GEC and Plessey shed 5p.

Shell and BP both fell 6p.

RESTAURANTS

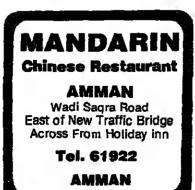

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER BUFFETS SPECIAL LUNCHEON BUFFET IN THE BALLROOM FRIDAYS & SUNDAYS ADULTS JD 4.000

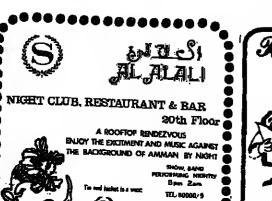

CHILDREN JD 2.500

nacks & steaks served.

TRANSPORTATION

JORDAN EXPRESS CO.

PACKING & CRATING AIR & SEA FREIGHT TRAVEL & TOURISM

> Tei. 62722, 62723 38141, 22565 tix. 21635 P.O. Box 2143

Brand-new model 1981 JORAC RENT- A-CAR Jaba! Amman.

facing Intercontinental Hotel For reservations. Please call: Tel. 44938 those entitled!

MISCELLANEOUS

Civil Defence St. Tel. 53890

Scandinavian Show Room See the latast in Danish sitting room furniture, wall units and bedrooms at Scandinavian Showroom. We have a larga selection of sitting rooms in luxurious Chlotz material.

Furniture available tax-free to Cards - welcome at:

Amman Grand Hotel Ghusein Hotel Grand Palace Hotel Hisham Hotel Holiday Inn-Ammar

Middle East Hotel Marryland Hotel Philadelphia Hotel 81121/2 42720 65167/8 61161

San Rock Hotel Jordan Modern Exh. for Oriental Souvenirs Philadelphia Rent A Car Jordan Tower Hotel
American Express Representative Tel. 61014-5 Tel. No. 67150

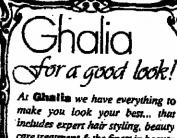

AQABA

MANDARIN Chinese Restaurant

AQABA Amman road beside Samir Amis Restaurant Tel. 4633 care treatment & the finest in beauty care producis. Sluneisani, near Tower How

The space shuttle... A technical challenge from An HINGTON — In 1972, U.S. pilor, And HINGTON — In 1972, U.S. pilot den ers set out to build somemever before made - somesome people said could not ade - a space airplane, or ink todal space-bus or van to ferry Onnuville, Japoratories and space.

National Aeronautics and Comme. Administration (NASA) Commence Administration (viril Hell eers and scientists will not the man for sure how well they have the man. heck the beded with their wonderheck the space shutuntil its biggest test: its first into space scheduled for e nine-year development Maria been a formidable chal-First the needs were estab-I; then the machine was built fil those needs.

SA needed to create a comlie work place in space for ing and stary people to work in normal offer at he ing without cumbersome ion merks suits or years of intensive

ng. The vehicle needed pow-, yet small, lightweight and ole engines, and tough but ilan on veight skin and fuselage to German, heavy cargo (saving trips a guilding and forth between earth and france at and thus saving money.) in francy craft needed a lightweight but life able heat shield to withstand excited peratures in the thousands of ish changes during re-entry into the eglan me is atmosphere. Its systems home to operate in weightlessness, h (T) Mag to operate in weighted and hollars e thin, upper atmosphere and lower atmosphere. ie denser, lower atmosphere. hape had to fly reasonably in four different aerodynamic ARKnes: acting at launch as a thin ctile; in space. as a spacecat re-entry, as a smooth, ted capsule; and in the sphere, as a glider airplane. to be able File of File hy itself," freeing people in htorage to do creative research and ் gainating the expense of and loving hundreds of people. one ins on earth to monitor all the at myems constantly. ASA had to do all this for avit 26 -fifth the cost of the Apollo wei gon landing programme, and th Time ie all the equipment 50 to 100 A Paries, further cutting the costs of min you trip to space.

Lince no one bad ever tried to this, NASA started from itch trying different ideas, vith limited funds, NASA ld not afford to test the systems pace. Engineers instead had to water tanks, mathematical dels, computers and wind tunto simulate the actual conons of weightlessness, the max--m dynamic stresses to the orbis body, and the heating during intry of the wings, nose and ler-belly. A re-entry path angle to be designed that was not steep (or else the vehicle ald burn up) and not too sbal-(or else it would skip off the of the atmosphere back into . ce, the way a well-thrown ne skips across a pond).

Each system was tested indiually. Fuel tanks were vibrated.

²eanuts

1.0 Kg (1.0 kg)

YOU KNOW

Just Saw?

WHAT I

Indy Capp

The heat shield tiles were heated to thousands of degrees, cooled to below zero degrees, then heated again, and subjected to wind and pressure tests. The engines were fired again and again.

But the structure and the systems operate differently once they are linked together. So the entire system then had to be tested and retested in concert on the launch

By far the largest technical challenge was the orbiter's three main engines used at lift-off. The engines, the most powerful, most fuel-efficient and compact chemical engines in the world, represent a major advancement in the state of the art that will eventually be seen in other applications in other fields, according to shuttle chief John Yardley.

Imagine, if you can, three engines side by side, each 4.2 metres high and 2.4 metres in diameter at the nozzle, that burn madly in less than nine minutes about over 700,000 kilogrammes of compressed liquid oxygen (the oxidizer) and liquid hydrogen (the fuel). Inside each engine are four turbopumps (turbine driven pumps) valves, cooling lines, 600 fuel-injector units that precisely inject and mix the liquids at the right ratio for efficient combustion, a combustion chamber and nozzle. Turbine blades are whirling at 35,000 revolutions per minute; temperatures reach 6,000 degrees fahrenheit (3315 degrees centigrade) and pressures range from 3,000 to 7,635 pounds per square inch.

The pressure bad to be high. because the engines are small (each 3,000 kilogrammes, or else the orbiter's rear end would have been too heavy and hulky, drastically reducing the craft's "lift" or aerodynamic flying characteristics. The super-cold liquid oxygen and hydrogen (both minus several hundred degrees) flow to the engines from the 47-metre external tank that forms the backbone of the system. Oxygen enters one side of each engine, bydrogen, the other; and each gas goes through similar processes. For example, part of the cold hydrogen is circulated as a coolant before entering the combustion chamber, and some of it is burned in a "preburner" that powers a series of two turbopumps. The preburner and turbopumps assure that the fuel is injected into the combustion chamber at a high temperature and at a very nigo pres sure, causing it to burn rapidly. When the resulting hot gases expand and pass out of the nozzle of the engine, they develop 1,670 kilonewtons of thrust at sea level more at higher elevations where the atmosphere is thinner.

The engines are designed to produce the maximum of power with the minimum of weight and size. For example, one scientist compared the hig-pressure fuel turbopump to three 707-aircraft engines compressed into a gar-

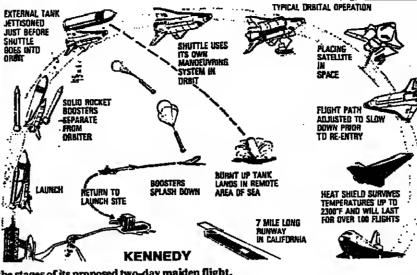

SOME KID WAS ON A

SKATEBOARD AND HIS

DOG WAS PULLING HIM

ALONG THE SIDEWALK ..

The space shuttle and the stages of its proposed two-day maiden flight.

placed on top of the felt.

putty-like filler.

The ceramic tiles are made of high-purity silica (glass) fibers.

They are 90 per cent void (resembling styrofoam) and ten per cent glass, which makes them light-weight. Between the tiles is a_

Other advances were made in the orbital manoeuvring system engine that is fired to slow the Columbia for re-entry. Its propellant tanks, for example, have a new device, a fine-mesh screen that lets fluid pass through but prevents loss of pressure or gas. .

Three other independent

bage can. The pump weighs only 70tt pounds (317 kilogrammes) but produces 62,000 horsepower. or 88 horsepower per pound.

An engine equivalent to the orbiter's, in any other application. would be about ten times larger according to NASA expert Jerry Fitts. Another innovation is that the engines can be throttled from n5 per cent to 1819 per cent of their normal power, Finally, they have the highest ever "specific impulse" -- a term delining engine efficiency, or how much thrust is produced for a given rate of use of

"I've been working on rocket engines for 22 years, and the orhiter engines still awe me," says NASA's John Mulcahy, "It's like containing a monster."

The hear shield of the orbiter has been an enormous challenge. The orbiter re-enters from the cold of space (minus 250 degrees fahrenheit) and plunges through the atmosphere at speeds up to 16,820 miles per hour (27,069) kilometres per hour. Friction with the atmosphere creates enormous heat -- up to 3,000 degrees fahrenheit (1,648 degrees centigrade) on the leading edges of the wings and on the nose cap. The underhelly is a little "cooler," and the upper payload bay doors may be as "cool" as 700 degrees fahrenheit (371 degrees centigrade). Thus, three types of insulation are required, one for each heating regime.

On previous space capsules, the heat shield was thick material that burned away as it kept the inside of the capsule cool. Nobody had invented a reusable heat shield, required by the orbiter; it would have been too complicated and costly to replace the shield after each flight. The orbiter is 37.24 metres long with a wing span of 23.79 metrcs. So NASA came up with the idea of individual panels or tiles -- 35,000 of them, each about 15.24 centimeters by 15.24 centimetres. Each tile can be individually replaced if damaged during re-entry, without replacing the njire shield. The tiles vary in composition and density. The hottest partions, such as the leading edges of the wings, have material made of an extra strong form of curbon. Very light weight ceramic tiles cover areas that do not get as hot, such as the underbelly. And a special coated felt material covers the "coolest" areas. The tiles vary in weight from four kilogrammes to 4.9 kilogrammes per eubic metre.

Each tile had to be eustomdesigned and cut in three dimensions for a specific spot on the orbiter's skin so that there would be no humps.

Installation was a problem. No one had tried to attach glass to an aluminum skin before. NASA came up with an elaborate procedure whereby the aluminum skin is first treated with primers and adhesives, and covered with a fireresistant nylon felt called Nomex". The tiles are then this isn't even close

TO WHAT I MEANT

Astronauts John W. Young and Robert Crippen

engines drive the orbiter's moving age and prevent twisting and flexsurfaces, such as the flap, the rudder and the elevators. There are At the rear of the orbiter's no cables or rods. Hydrazine wings are the elevators. At the

GOREN BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN AND OMAR SHARIF

North-South vulnerable.

West deals. NORTH- ·

+ AK2 ♥K632 ♦ Q10653

+7653 V 1097 ♦ A 8

> HTUOR +QJ108 ♥ A Q O 9742

4953 The bidding: West North East South 2 🕈 Dble. Pass Pass 4 + Pass Pass

Pass Opening lead: Ten of ♥

If the came of Brazilian star Gabriel Chagas cropa up in this column quite often, it is only because we consider him ooe of the world's great players. This column and the oext will feature him defeoding and playing hands from the recent World Team Olympiad io Valkenburg, Netberlaods.

Chagas and his partner use ao artificial club system, so West's opening of two clubs showed a hand of fewer than 16 points and a club suit. Since South felt that all his cards were working, he made ao invitational jump to three spades. With ooly three trumps and a minimum double. North's raise to game was somewhat optimistic.

liquid fuel is converted to mechanical power to drive hydraulic pumps that pump the fluid that Sensors and systems are scattered all over the orbiter from the front to the rear. At front is the three-storied deck, with the cockpit on top, the kitchen, the bath and sleeping area at mid-deck, and an equipment area on the lower deck. Behind the cockpit is the "trunk" -- the 18.2-metre long cargo bay, covered by two doors.

which are made of grapbite epoxy.

The doors give strength to the otherwise flimsy aluminum fusel-moves the aero-surfaces.

West led the ten of hearts, won by the queen. Declarer realized that he could not afford to draw trumps before setting up the diamond suit. West rose with the ace and Chagas dropped the king!

West continued with a heart. Declarer won the ace and, completely takeo in by Chagas's brilliant falsecard, saw that he could take eleveo tricks if trumps were no worse thao 4-2. He drew trumps and gleefully finessed the teo of diamoods. Chagas woo the jack and returned a club, and the defenders took tbe rest of the tricks. While we do not wish to detract in the slightest from Chagas' extraordinary display, declarer should oot have allowed himself to be bamboozled. If East really had a singletoo diamond, why hadn't West given him a ruff? West could then regain the lead with the ace of clubs to give Chagas a secood ruff, which would have defeated the hand immediately.

vertical stabiliser that has a rudder. The wing's elevators, the body flap and the rudder control the orbiter's movements -- nose in the atmosphere, whereas engines control the orbiter's position in space.

and controlled by, computers. The shuttle can be operated companel.

knobs and switches, each representing a different orbiter func- aircraft instruments, such as tion, that the astronauts can turn altimeters. to operate a system manually if the computer controls should fail.

with identical programmes, performance jet, the F-15, which receive identical information from flies at speeds 2.5 times the speed all sensors and systems, determine of sound (the Shuttle re-enters at what the sensors are saving or the speeds 25 times the speed of systems are doing, culculate an sound). The F-15 lands at speeds appropriate response and com- of 125 knots (nautical miles per mand the actions. While com- hour). The orbiter lands at speeds manding actions, each computer is of 196 knots. The F-15 weighs also "listening to," or "checking 13,608 kilogrammes, the orbiter out" the actions commanded by weighs 97,524. The F-15 stops the other three computers. If one within 762 metres; the orbiter computer's calculations are dif- requires about 3.047 metres (U.S. ferent from the other three, that ICA feature) rear of the orbiter are the engines. computer is "voted out" and shut above which is the tail with the down. Since no two computers calculate at precisely the same speed, the four computers also contact each other 300 to 350 times a second, sending out "synup or down, nose sideways, or roll chronization signals." If for some reason, one computer is slow and falls-behind, it is voted out.

There is also a fifth computer All of the shuttle's parts and sys- that can be activated, if in some tems are totally dependent upon, extreme disaster, the other four computers fail.

Although he doesn't have to. pletely by computers, from the commander John Young will take checkout of all systems on the over the orbiter's controls during launch pad, through launch, to the final phase of lunding. In front re-entry and landing. Engineers of him are computer-display call this "flying by wire." The job screens, television-like devices of astronauts John W. Young and called cathode ray tubes that pro-Robert Crippen will largely be vide information from the commonitoring what the computers puters. The computers will culare doing through an array of culate how Young is flying the instruments on the coekpit's machine -- if he is coming in too fast or too slow, and where he is in In the cockpit are 17,000 dials, relation to the landing strip. On the cockpit panel are also standard

To appreciate the difficulty of landing the heavy orbiter, one can Four identical computers, each compare it with the high-

THE Daily Crossword by Nallie Mayar

57 Nostrils

58 Cannon

60 Garbo

1 Driss

2 Elysian

Essay

61 Sommar

DOWN

of cinema

59 Shouts at a

WAS onother generation."

49 Spotted 53 Rear and 33 Sea plants ACROSS 1 Waistband 34 Decay fixtures 35 Acclaim 5 Eva or 55 lowa city wildly

pompously

Schools

tor delin-

Zsa Zsa 36 Place 10 Footnota 37 Departed word 14 River in 38 Inhabitant: suff. Poland 15 Po's land 39 Of bees 40 Speak

17 Descartes 18 Medicinal plant 20 Complicate

16 Black: It.

22 Diagnostic procedure 23 Road booth 24 City on the Oka 25 Bright red 28 Maxims 32 Come about quants. in England 43 Prayer 44 Small pastry 45 Medieval estate 46 "Hairy Ape" playwright

Saturday's Puzzle Solvad: Dali

5 Exprass childish dalight Coral island Cotton unit

ottaring 10 Shoe part 12 Historical periods Mythical

19 Second generation 21 Snift

seaport 45 Group of eight 46 Bismarck 47 Fasten securely 48 Garman

25 South

26 Sistar of

27 Straam

28 Criestor

29 Malayan

boats

31 Dutch

33 Listing

37 Brolled

39 Ever

30 Lone Rang-painter

36 European smelt meat

40 Spoken 42 Walking poles 43 Ukrainian

er's triand

American

Melpomena

article 49 Eger river to Czecha 50 - acetate

(banana olD 51 Wood 52 Thrall of

© 1981 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

YES, THANKS

I CAN'T

IMAGINE

WANT TO TRY IT?

(Answers tomorrow)

Jumbles: WOMEN SKULL EQUATE BICKER They were holding drinks at the acrobats' party—"TUMBLERS"

Brezhnev's speech seeks to allay Western fears

PRAGUE, April 7 (R) — Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev apparently sought today to allay anxiety over possible intervention in Poland saying he believed the Poles could overcome their present

WORLD NEWS BRIEFS

Countdown continues for U.S. space shuttle

CAPE CANAVERAL, April 7 (R) - The countdown for Friday's launch of the U.S. space shuttle Columbia continued today, uninterrupted by work on a minor electrical fault. Officials at Kennedy Space Centre said the repair work, on wiring affecting a valve in one of the shuttle's main engines, was being down during a planned "hold" period that does not affect the formal countdown. Sbuttle test conductor Bill Shick told reporters the short circuit fault would not have affected the flight but the repairs would be made because Friday's launch is the Columbia's critical first test flight. He pointed out that the Columbia was already two years behind schedule, partly because the programme's directors had been very cautious in proceeding. Astronauts John Young and Robert Crippen will become the first Americans in space since a joint Soviet-American effort in 1975. Delays have pushed

Christian Democrat murdered in Naples

NAPLES, April 7 (AP) - A local Christian Democrat politician was shot and killed and a second person in his car was wounded on a road outside this southern port city today, paramilitary police said. Police were unable to say immediately if the assassins were political terrorists or gunmen for the Neapolitan Camotra, the Mafia-style organised crime syndicate. The victim was identified as Mr. Alfredo Mundo. 56, a member of the provincial government. He was shot near his home in the suburb of Marigliano, east of Naples, police said. Mr. Mundo died immediately. A passing car stopped and drove the second person, Mr. Franco Conserlo, 28, to a local hospital for treatment. According to initial police reports, Mr. Mundo was shot by two or three gunmen in a white car who afterwards drove away toward Naples at top speed.

Andrew Young to run for Atlanta mayor

ATLANTA, Georgia, April 7 (R) — Andrew Young, former

U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, bas announced he would stand for mayor of Altaota. Mr. Young, whose outspokenness made him a controversial figure during the Carter administration.

became the eighth candidate for mayor in the October 6 election.

"I don't know anybody any better qualified to take on tough challenges than me," be told a meeting of his supporters. His candidacy was immediately endorsed by the Rev. Martin Luther King Sr. and Ms. Coretta Scott King, the father and the widow of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr. Mr. Young, 49, served as the younger King's top aide during the civil rights movement in the 1950s and 1960s and was at his side when be was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1968. Five whites and two other blacks previously announced their candidacies for the post held by Mr.

Maynard Jackson, the first black elected mayor of Atlanta. Mr.

Jackson is not eligible to stand for a third term. Sixty-six per cent of Atlanta's 425,000 residents are black.

JOHANNESBURG, April, 7 (AP) — About 7,000 black mineworkers demoostrated against rent bikes early today, wrecking a beer hall and setting administrative offices on fire, the South African Press Association reported. A police spokesman said the demonstrators fled the scene at Germiston, 20 kilometres east of here, before police arrived. There were no reports of any confrontations with authorities, and no reports of injuries. It was not immediately known how production would be affected. The protest reportedly erupted over a rent hike equivalent to about $7,.

raising the monthly rate in the hostels for migrant workers to about $18. The unrest followed demonstration against rent hikes in three government-administered black townships in the Johannesburg area that as of April 1 raised rents about $9 to about $29 a month. Isolated stonings were reported in Tembisa, 30 kilometres east of here, where a disturbance erupted Sunday after police refused to allow residents to hold a meeting about the increases. A number of black leaders were believed to bave been detained.

Trouble also was reported in Sebokeng and Evaton south of here,

Tekere 'proud' of murder of white farmer

NAIROBI, April 7 (AP) - Former Zimbabwe manpower minister Edgar Tekere says be's "proud" of the murder of a white farmer which led to his removal from the cabinet last January, the Daily Nation reported today. The newspaper quoted Mr. Tekere, who was acquitted of the murder charge last year, as saying in an interview here, "I don't regret it. I am proud of it." Mr. Tekere, who is visiting friends in Nairobi, told the Nation that the farmer was killed in a "necessary military cleanup" because he refused to surrender. "The whites had tried to attack a group of ministers.

That made it necessary for us to make a military cleanup of the place," he was quoted as saying. "You don't go into a place where people have been firing at ministers with your hands in your pocket." The murder sparked bitterness among whites and there were predictions that many would leave the country after Mr.

Tekere's acquittal.

with arson and stonings reported in both townships.

S. African blacks continue protests

the cost of the programme to more than $9 billion:

In an eagerly awaned speech to the Czechoslovak Communist Party Congress, made amid mounting concern over Soviet intentions on Poland, Mr. Brezhnev made only brief direct reference to the situation and gave no real clues as to Kremlin think-

But in drawing a parallel with events in Czechoslovakia in 1968 that led to a Warsaw Pact invasion, the Soviet leader gave a thinly-veiled warning that Poland should get its house in order. He made no direct threat of any similar intervention in Poland.

His only reference to the possibility of Soviet "aid" to Poland was in an attack on the West for rrying to put preconditions on disarmament talks. He accused western powers of claiming the right to give orders everywhere "while requiring us to give up the vital interests of our own security and the granting of aid 10 our friends when they are exposed to aggression or to the

This as seen as a response to a recent statement by U.S. Defence Secretary Caspar Weinberger that there could be oo disarmament talks if Moscow intervened in

Thatcher's firm message

In related developments, British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher has written to President Brezhnev taking a firm tone about Polaod and Afghanistan, officials said yesterday.

The letter, sent over the weekend, was in reply to a letter which President Brezhnev sent her last month.

He wrote to major Western leaders following his proposals for a moratorium on stationing medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe and for an early summit meeting with President Reagao.

According to informed sources, Mrs. Thatcher said in her letter that Poland remained at the forefront of her concern.

She has repeatedly called on the troops from Afghanistan and has urged that there should be no outside interference in Poland.

Walesa wants to quit?

Polish labour leader Lech Walesa says he is tired and wants to resign but still has several tasks in helping solve his country's crisis.

The Solidarity chief added in an interview published today that be did not believe the Soviet Union would intervene militarily in Poland. "I have said so 15 times,"

He also praised Prime Minister Wojciech Jaruzelski. "Tbings have been going much better since Gen. Jaruzelski became prime minister," he told the newspaper France-Soir.

Mr. Walesa said he wanted deeply and sincerely to resign as leader of Solidarity. He bad worked to establish the union for 13 years, had been jailed and had lost his health.

But if he remained as leader, it was to prevent the break-up of the

There were bot-heads in Solidarity, but he had won before and would win again. "Believe me, I know bow to calm them down," he

Mr. Walesa said it was essential that Solidarity and the gov-ernment rapidly reached a national agreement to restore the economy and correct injustices.

And the first congress of the nationwide association of independent students has ended with expressions of support for independent worker and farmer groups, the Polish news agency PAP reported today.

The student coogress was the first by the association of about 80,000 students since it was registered during a 29-day student strike in Lodz, ceotral Poland, that ended io February.

The association expressed support for the independent unioo Solidarity and farmers who are seeking registration of their own union independent of government control.

During the strike in Lodz, the students woo registration of their own union in addition to academic and administrative reforms at uni-

Spurt of violence

On the other hand, a large group of "booligans" invaded the "Venus" cafe bere and stole several coats worth some 200,000 zlotys ($6,700) PAP has reported.

The agency said the bank forced their way into the cafe, "terrorised" the personnel and customers and then made off with their coats.

Such incidents are unusual in Poland where there is little violence crime or gang violence. PAP said police had arrested some of the group after the incident.

Red Brigades on the move again

Prison warder shot dead

Rome, April 7 (R) — Masked gummen shot dead a prison warder in a Rome street today and Italy's Red Brigade guerrillas claimed responsibility, police said.

Mr. Raffaele Cinotti, 28, had left for work when three men stepped out of a parked car near his house and called his name. As Mr. Cinotti turned the men pumped several bullets into him with automatic weapons before driving away.

Police found several leaflets near the warder's body, but did not

Later an unidentified caller telephoned the offices of the Rome daily La Repubblica to claim responsibility for the killing on behalf of the Red Brigades. "The torturer, jailer and exploiter Chotti has been executed," a man's voice said. He then warned police not to harm Mr. Mario Moretti, the alleged Red Brigade leader arrested in Milan on Saturday after a nine year hunt.

It was the first Red Brigade attack in Rome since a carabinieri general in charge of Italian prison security was shot dead on New

The Red Brigades, who on Dec. 12 kidnapped Mr. Giovanni d'Urso, a Rome magistrate responsible for jail transfers, and beld him for 34 days, have waged a long battle against prisons. After pressure and repeated threats from Mr. d'Urso's kidnappers the authorities closed the Asinara top security jail off Sardinia which had housed many convicted Red Brigade members. Before today's killing newspapers had speculated that Mr.

Moretti's capture marked the demise of Italy's most dreaded "armed Mr. Moretti, the alleged mastermind of the kidnapping and murder of former prime minister Aldo Moro in 1978, faces 51 charges.

Shooting, forged results mar plebiscite

Filipinos go to polls MANILA, April 7 (Agencies) — A fatal shooting and discovery of Mr.-Cesar Climaco, the opposforged election results marred generally peaceful voting today in a plebiscite that could keep President Ferdinand E. Marcos in power at least six more years,

In the capital, where no major incidents were reported. 30 govemment opponents arrested in a noise demonstration last night were released by police four hours before the polls opeoed.

The official Philippine News Agency (PNA) reported a village offical was shot dead by an unidentified gunman in a voting centre in the southern Philippine province of Zamboanga del Sur. In the same province two men were arrested for allegedly forging thousands of elections returns.

The plebiscite is for approval of constitutional amendments that would pave the way for the Philippines' first presidential election in 12 years. Mr. Marcos' opponents say each provision is designed to perpetuate bis 16year rule and say a "No" vote would force him to step down sooner.

Although voting appeared light in the early hours in Manila and other places, PNA reported a "beavy turnout" among an estimated 25 million voters nationwide in the country's first national political exercise since Mr. Marcos ended eight years of martial law last January.

Government television and radio reported some turnouts of more than 90 per cent by the time the polls closed. But random checks on some Manila polling stations indicated turnouts of between 40 and 55 per cent, even though voting is compulsory.

ition mayor of Zamboanga City, led officials and police in raiding a local Zamboanga botel where thousands of forged tally sheets from five provinces and four cities were found in three large cartons. Police said two of four men occupying adjoining rooms in the hotel managed to escape but their companions were arrested.

Police withheld the names of the four, but hotel records showed the rooms were registered in the name of the government's Regional Executive Council dominated by Mr. Marcos' new society

Investigators said a cursory reading of the fogeries showed an overwhelming "Yes" vote, in some tally sheets 100 to 0 (Zero). The raid took place four hours before the polls were to close and counting begin at 5 p.m. (0900GMT).

"If this could happen in Zamhoanga...I see no reason why this can't be true in other parts of the country," Mr. Climaco told repor-

Mr. Marcos' opponents, who campaigned for either a boycott or a "No" vote, had accused the government of rigging past referendums and elections, with the president admitting fraud was committed by hoth sides in the 1978 and 1980 local elections.

No violence was reported elsewhere in the southern Mindanao region, where the government is fighting both communist insurgents and Muslim separatist rebels, but the watchdog commission on elections reported transferring voting places in at least eight towns because of the presence of "armed men."

From frying pan into the fire

Hijack hostage arrested on dope-running charges

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP) - An American held by hijackers for 13 days aboard a Pakistani airliner has been arrested by federal oarcotics agents as the alleged leader of an international drug-

Mr. Craig Clymore, 24, was seized by drug enforcement administration ageots yesterday aboard a Lufthansa Airlines flight from Frankfurt, West Germany, the agency announced. He was expected to be arraigned today on drug smuggling charges.

A federal indictment alleges that Mr. Clymore and eight confederates smuggled more than $12 million worth of heroin and hashisb oil into the United States from Afghanistan and Pakistan betweeo October 1979 and January 1981. The group is accused of making five to 12 round-trips each in the smuggling enterprise. Also known as Craig Richards, Mr. Clymore was one of two Americans among 102 passengers and crew members beld hostage for 13 days last month by terrorists opposed to Pakistani regime. They were freed March 14 in Syria.

Following the hostages' release, Mr. Clymore's passport was revoked by the State Department and be was arrested by Syrian authorities at the request of U.S. officials. He was deported Sunday from Damascus, travelled to Fraokfurt and theo was put on a plane to New York. American agents who had accompanied him from Damascus moved in when the jet entered U.S. airspace 322 kms off the East Coast, according to DEA spokesman James Judge. He was escorted from the plane in handcuffs at Kennedy airport, and taken to the agency's headquarters in Manhattan.

U.S. congressman sees early break in tax for Americans abroad

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP) -Rep. Sam Gibbons has predicted that Congress will pass a law by early June freeing Americans working abroad from taxation on some of their earned income. The Florida Democrat, the chairman of a ways and means subcommittee dealing with taxes, did not mention any figures in his comments, but he did say that unearned income still would be subject to taxation.

Reagan administration officials have said a proposal to help Americans abroad with their taxes will be made in a second tax bill, after Congress acts on President Reagan's proposal for a 30-per cent, three-year tax cut. But Mr. Gibbons said he, thought there would be a single hill.

Until the late 1970s, Americans abroad could deduct up to $25,000 of their earned income from their tax bills. This provision has been replaced by a complicated system of special deduc-

"We made a terrible mistake in 1976," Mr. Gibbons said at a meeting of businessmen on international trade. "We aimed at one target and hit a lot of others."

He said the aim was to bring film production back to the United States by removing a provision that made it more advantageous to produce movies abroad. The movies came back, be said, but other Americans abroad suffered the consequences.

The group was also addressed by Sen. John C. Danforth, the Missonri Republican who is chairman of the corresponding tax subcommittee in the Senate. He said he agreed with Mr. Gibbons on an exemption for the earned income of Americans abroad, but he also did not mention figures.

SPORTS ROUNDU

South Africans make debut in U.S. soccer

NEW YORK, April 7 (R) — The South African Sono broid made a bitter-sweet debut for Toronto Blizzard in the Manual American soccer league at the weekend. The borthers, Jone Julius, each got a goal — but Tampa Bay Rowdies has The South State of the South State o Julius, each got a goal -- but Tampa Bay Rowdies beat Tor
4-3. Bruce Rioch, a 33-year-old former Scottish internation was voted "Player of the Week" for his part in Seattle Sound win over Portland Timbers. Rioch scored their goal in a m that eoded 1-1 at full time and after extra time. Then he scon the shootout victory. It was Seattle's second consecutive win it young season. Jacksonville Teamen, who beat New York Cos 2-1, have also started with two wins.

Greco-Roman wrestling championshi

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, April 7 (R) - Romanian St. Rusu is the hottest favourite among experts here for a title in European Greco-Roman wrestling championships star Iomorrow. The Moscow Olympic lightweight champion is tip 137 to take his fourth consecutive European nile, a run which stain 1978 when he was also world champion. Rusu's major thre likely to be another Olympic champion. Stylianos Migiaki Greece. The featherweight title winner in Moscow, he has me up to the lightweight class here. The major French medal tender is also in this class. Lionel Lacaze, a 26-year-old f Bordeaux, was 10th in Moscow, but fourth in the Los Ang world championships a year earlier. Lacaze spearheads a ser men French contingent which also includes bantamweight Mi Mercader, sixth best European last year, but neither he nor brother Jean-Pierre are rated among medal contenders this Easi Europeans, particularly Soviet wrestlers, are expecte take most titles. Among them are Olympic champions like tamweight Khamil Serikov of the Soviet Union, welterwe Ferenc Kocsis of Bulgaria, light middleweight Gennady Ko of the Soviet Union and Romanian middleweight No. Noevenyi. Soviet light beavyweight Olympic silver medallist European titleholder Igor Kanygin is missing, replaced by A ander Dubrovsky, to whom he lost in the recent national cha ionships. Other Soviet wrestlers not here are Olympic he weight champion Alexander Koltkhinsky, light flyweight sylik Ushkempirov and flyweight Vachtang Blagidze.

Indian tribal leader sets up his own state

NEW DELHI, April 7 (AP) - A tribal leader in impoverished State, northern India, has declared independence from Ind. written to the Commonwealth Secretariat in London staking a for membership in the organisation of former British colonies a parliamentarian reported today.

Mr. Pius Tirkey told an Indian reporter that he witnessed a 30 meeting in Singbhum District where the tribal leader. Narayan Jonko; proclaimed the area's independence. India; independence from Britain in 1947.

In his letter to the Commonwealth Secretariat, Mr. Jonko: tedly wrote about exploitation of his fellow tribals by fores

Mr. Jonko was described as the founder of the Kolhan Rakt (Save Kolhan Party). Kolhan is the 2,200 square-kilometri, which the tribals reportedly claim does not fall under Indian j. iction and is located some 250 kilometres east of Calcutta.

Mr. Tirkey said that after the tribal leader's speech, his foll waved their "national flag," a green and white coloured clotb bow and arrow, traditional tribal weapons, depicted on it.

Indian government officials said that they were checking

The coup that fizzled outrove

BANGKOK — The 55-hour attempt to seize power through a coup d'etat in Thailand this week appears to have been an ill-conceived effort doomed to failure from the start.

The coup, engineered by a group of ambitious military officers known as the "Young Turks". crumbled with scarcely a shot fired in anger when government troops began to take over key points in Bangkok early last Friday.

What made failure a virtual certainty was that the only prize the rebels controlled at any time was Bangkok and its trappings of

The real sources of power -- the royal family, the bulk of the armed forces and the constitutionally chosen government -- were 255 kilometres away in the northeastern town of Korat. Why the plotters chose to act before ensuring a reasonable prospect of success remains a mystery although coups have often proved an effective way of changing governments in Thailand.

ernment by constitutional monarcby is dominated by the military. There was a brief but ill-fated flirtation with democracy in the mid-1970s, but the present constitution provides for elections only to the lower house. The senate has a preponderance of appointed military men.

The Young Turks who were behind this week's coup, with some senior generals as nominal leaders, have formed an influential pressure group in the military for some time, relishing their growing power which sharpened their appealte for change.

They were probably inspired to act by general dissatisfaction over. the way Prime Minister Prem Tinsulanonda's government was running the country.
Gen. Prem, the army commander-in-chief, came to

The trappings of power - Col. Sant Chitpatima gave a press conference on Thursday, the second day of the coup.

There have been 12 coup attempts in Thailand since World War II, most of them successful. The successful ones have in the past proved something of a safety-valve, a way of bringing change without revolution to a country whose system of gov-

power peacefully 13 months ago when Gen. Kriangsak Chomanan resigned following widespread criticism of bis handling of the economy.

After a brief honeymoon period, the Prem government began to show signs of stress

The end of a march - Col. Pravak Sawangchit, one of the top lea of the abortive coup, under arrest.

among the politicians brought in to form an uneasy coalition. It finally collapsed last month and a command from King Bhi Gen. Prem patched logether another coalition.

With the government's image dented by the wrangling and public washing of dirty linen, the Young Turks, impatient over the pace of change in Thai society, may have felt the time was ripe for the people and armed force decisive actioo.

They professed themselves disgusted at corruption, social inequalities and the lack of full democracy. But their power base was uncertain and their focus diffuse.

"They had always been dismissed in any reckoning of the role rebellion. of the military in the country as an amorphous group with scattered political ideals, with a thin layer of liberalism floating on an ocean of of the army, apart from ele frustration," the Nation Review of the First Army in Bangko newspaper commented this week. some troops brought by the "What united them, and what officers from outside the caulomately made them dangerous, was their hunger for power." it

According to government accounts, the dissident officers rebels who spoke of resistant tried first to persuade Gen. Prem to stage a coup against himself, advocating the dictatorial use of power to solve all problems.

When be refused, they decided to strike anyway. But somehow they allowed Gen. Prem to escape to Korat, headquarters of the loyal Second Army which he himself had commanded for many years.

The official foreign m version said the officers diso Adulyadej summoning ther audience. This was why the minister advised members royal family to go to saf Korat, it said.

The mere presence of the family in Korat spoke volucountry that reveres the kir aueen. In effect, it meant the cot failed and the seizure of ernment installations and ... ings in Bangkok, including . Thailand, amounted to a

It also quickly became app that Gen. Prem was suppor the navy, the air force and the

The only question, then when and how government t would move on Bangkok i face of defiant statements t all costs."

In the event, Gen. Prem's. did not rumble in from the bo Most troops were flown 1 transport planes and m quickly around the city to tak positions and snuff out the t

REUTER

ا مكذا مذلوما